BELETED MEMBERS OF TOUR PARTY ARE HERE

Five Massachusetts Forestry Association Excursionists Arrived from Ketchikan by Gasboat.

Five members of the Massachusetts Forestry Association tour party which has been visiting Alaska in the course of a tour to National parks and forests in the Northwestern States and Alaska arrived from Ketchikan by the launch Hawkeye, Capt. Day, at 1.40 this morning. The party had intended arriving here on the Princess Alice on Saturday afternoon, but were delayed in the north and had to engage the launch to bring them here. They report having had a rough passage from Ketchikan to this port and they were all very glad to arrive here safe and sound, and put up at the Prince Rupert Hotel. They are going East on tonight's train and will stop off at Jasper Park.

Originally, the party consisted of 30 members but all of them except these five have already gone south. Those here are Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Leghorn, of Boston; Mrs. H. A. Maurer, of New York; Mrs. C. W. Better, of Philadelphia, and Harris A. Reynolds, of Boston. Mr. Reynolds has been in charge of the tour.

HEAD OF METHODIST MISSIONS IN CITY

Dr. O. Darwin Preached at Local Church Last Night—Is On Tour of Inspection to North

Dr. O. Darwin, superintendent of Methodist missions for the province of British Columbia, preached last night at the regular service in the local Methodist Church. He arrived from Hazelton and Smithers by the evening train and will leave tonight for Port Simpson. He is on a tour of the north and later in the week will visit Anyox and Ocean Falls.

Dr. Darwin was just recently appointed to his present position succeeding Dr. J. H. White who was superannuated. He was formerly superintendent of missions in Saskatchewan, but for the past several years has been in Liverpool in charge of emigration work for the church there.

WILL SPEND WINTER IN KLONDYKE AND CENTRAL ALASKA

Lieut. Col. and Mrs. R. N. Stewart, of Scotland, who have been cruising in the neighborhood of the city for the past three months, sailed this morning on the Princess Louise for the north. They are going through to the Yukon and Central Alaska where they will spend the winter. A trip down the Yukon River from Dawson to Nome is included in their itinerary. They will go from Nome to Seattle by the outside passage and expect to be back in this city in June next year.

PREPARING TO VISIT RUPERT DURING FAIR

Telkwa Football Team Has New Manager and Great Interest in Being Taken in Organization.

TELKWA, Aug. 12.—At a meeting of the Telkwa Athletic Association last week W. Wallace was elected football manager in place of E. Owens, who had handed in his resignation. J. Graham was appointed vice-captain in place of H. Miller who is at Dome Mountain mine.

Interest in football is keen now that word has gone around that the team is to go to Prince Rupert to play during fair week.

ROYAL ARMS CUP SHOOT YESTERDAY RESULTED IN TIE

In the shoot for the Royal Arms Cup at the McNicholl Creek range yesterday afternoon, Allan Davies and William Brass tied, each having a score of 42 out of a possible 50 for ten shots at the 600 yard range. Next Sunday there will be a shoot-off between these two men at the same range, the best scorer out of 5 shots to be declared the winner.

In the regular weekly shoot for the regimental spoon, M. M. Lamb was the winner with a score of 84. A. M. Davies was high man but he was handicapped 11 to Lamb's seven.

WHIST DRIVE HELD AT SMITHERS PROVED ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

SMITHERS, Aug. 12.—There was a whist drive held under the auspices of the local whist club at the local hotel, held in the lodge rooms on Wednesday.

A "500" contest was also arranged for the devotees of that particular game, and after a hard-fought session the returns proclaimed Mrs. J. R. McIntyre entitled to first prize, with the consolation prize going to Miss S. Auger. Ed. Murin's score entitled him to first prize, and S. Bennett "backed" in to the hoodlum.

The whist game was closely played with the first prize for ladies being
