

Nerves So Bad That She Would Sit and Cry

Mrs. Mary Hocking, Madoc, Ont., writes:—

"Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done me a wonderful lot of good. I suffered from general weakness and was so run down and my heart and nerves were in such bad shape that I would sit down and cry and not know what I was crying about. I also used to have weak spells. Thanks to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, however, I am real well now. I shall always keep a box of the Nerve Food in the house, and recommend them to my friends; they are a wonderful medicine."
(Mr. J. W. Vince, Druggist, of Madoc, Ont., says: "I have sold Mrs. Hocking your Nerve Food, and the medicine has done her much good.")

Direct Legislation Not Yet A Success.

Direct legislation has not proved to be a success so far. It is very ponderous and unwieldy and costly. So far in British Columbia it has not been used but there are threats that it may be in the near future. Those who favor open selling of beer and those who want total prohibition are both considering the possibility of invoking it with a view to getting their case before the people.

While on the face of it, to ask the people to vote on a law or to initiate it, seems the right one, there are many drawbacks when it comes to putting the system into practice. To educate the people on the merits or demerits of a bill, a good deal of money is necessary and the side that puts the most money and energy into the work is likely to prove the winner. There are so few people who will take the trouble to read through an act of the legislature with its technical phraseology and criticize it intelligently, that it seems hopeless to try to get them to vote on it intelligently. If it were tried out a few times we should know more about it, perhaps.

Can The Government Control Big Business?

There seems to be some difference of opinion as to whether the government will be able to make effective the law which is being enacted at Ottawa to control trusts, mergers and combinations in restraint of trade. Naturally there is a division along party lines in the discussion but not wholly so. Today there are many independent journals in Canada that discuss subjects on their merits instead of being eternally swayed by the party machine.

The bill is sometimes referred to as one to control commercial piracy and as such is to be commended. The only question is whether or not it can be made effective. Much will depend on the administration after the bill is passed. It is easy enough to pass laws but it is much more difficult to put them in force.

The law creates a new offense. It makes it a crime to manipulate the prices of goods to the detriment of the public. What that means will have to be fought out in the courts if it is not clearly defined in the Act. The probability is that the new law will lead to a lot of litigation because no two people will be able to agree as to what really is meant by restraint of trade.

Money Necessary In Any Big Fight.

Owing to the difficulty in securing funds from the United States the trouble in Ireland is subsiding. If they had been able to secure unlimited funds, the trouble would have continued indefinitely. That is the intimation given in newspaper despatches and is probably the correct view. So it is in all struggles political, industrial or national. Funds are necessary to enable the contestants to carry on. An army fights on its stomach and a political army finds money necessary in order to carry on. That is why the radicals object to money and so often suggest abolishing it. It is used against them and they feel its power. If there were no money, then the equivalent of money would be used in the same way.

Britain Will Pay, Commencing At Once.

Today's despatches state that Britain will not take advantage of a clause in the agreement with the United States giving that country a year's grace before commencing to make repayments of loans contracted during the war. She will commence to pay at once realizing that the sooner the payments are made the less interest there will be to pay and the quicker the trouble will be over. That is the spirit to adopt in meeting all debts. It is desirable to pay promptly, wherever possible, to avoid overcharges and to secure good service.

COMPLIMENTARY LOCAL MEMBER

Victoria Paper Draws Attention to Compliment Paid Oliver Ministry

It will be satisfactory to Mr. Pattullo and his colleagues in the cabinet to know that the efforts which British Columbia has been and is still making to obtain settlers for this province are appreciated by the Federal Minister of Immigration, says the Victoria Times. Mr. Stewart informed the House of Commons that the Oliver ministry is doing a good deal more in this respect than the prairie governments.

Although this province may not be as favorably situated for the reception of a new farming population as those sections of the country which possess greater available acreage, and are able to draw upon the co-operation of the railway companies and the various colonization agencies, the fact remains that if the Dominion government will recognize British Columbia somewhat in the light of a special case, lending its co-operative assistance to plans which we believe Mr. Pattullo already has placed before Mr. Mackenzie King and his colleagues, this province will be able to meet its peculiar obstacles with greater prospect of success.

Officials in charge of Empire settlement in London are familiar with British Columbia's opportunities through the personal representations which Mr. Pattullo was able to make on his two visits to Britain. It is to be hoped, therefore, that while the minister is in Ottawa the Federal cabinet will be able to assist him to go ahead with the plans which he considers would be successful.

SANITARY MATTERS BEFORE COUNCIL

Monthly Official at Salary of $132 to be Out on Basis of Common Labor

The city council decided last night, on recommendation of the Board of Works, to eliminate the position of a sanitary man at a salary of $132 per month and change the basis of pay of such an employee to that of common labor. The position is at present held by J. Carrall.

In connection with this matter, Ald. Macdonald said that it was necessary to do something in connection with the city's garbage dump. At present there were four dead dogs there which should be buried. He wanted to know who was supposed to attend to this work and why it was not done.

Ald. Perry agreed that something must be done in connection with the garbage dump. It was a menace to the public health as it was.

Mayor Newton stated that the city engineer as sanitary inspector was responsible.

Ald. Stephens suggested that the Board of Works might go into the whole matter of garbage disposal and decide whether or not free service should be given.

John Tail, native of Port Simpson, appeared in the County Court yesterday afternoon charged with attempting to commit a statutory offence and was remanded until today. W. E. Fisher is prosecuting and Le W. Patmore, of Patmore & Fulton, appears for the defence.

RETURNED SOLDIERS PRE-EMPTORS

Returned soldiers, who were members of the allied forces in the great war who, before enlistment were the lawful holders of pre-emption records of land in British Columbia, and who had entered into occupation of their claims, or their heirs may, by filing their application before the 30th of June, 1923, still obtain "free grant."

The Pre-emptors' free Grant Act was passed by the British Columbia Government in 1914 to provide for the free grant being made of their lands to those pre-emptors who became members of the Allied Forces and who took part in the European War, as well as their heirs of such pre-emptors who fell or died subsequent to enlistment. It also provides for the return to the pre-emptors who became members of the allied forces, of all monies which accrued due and were paid by them subsequent to August 1, 1914, on account of payment, fees, or taxes in respect to pre-emptors to which said act applies.

The act was to have expired on August 31, 1922. At the last session of the Legislature an amendment was made extending the time to June 30, 1923.

It is very unlikely that any further extension will be made and all who are entitled to claim a free grant under the terms of the act, will require to make their application before June 30, 1923, in order to benefit by it.

FORMER TREASURER ASKED COUNCIL TO PAY FOR HIS TRIP

A request from W. D. Vance, ex-city treasurer, asking that his expenses in attending the Union of B.C. Municipalities at Kamloops last fall be paid was turned down by the council last night. A letter received from Mr. Vance stated that Ex-Mayor Rochester, who was the accredited delegate of the city and whose expenses had been paid, had come to him for his notes on the convention which had been furnished, allowing the ex-mayor to submit to the council a report on which he had been complimented. In view of the fact that the city had thus gained the benefits of trip, Mr. Vance felt that his expenses should be allowed.
