MINE PLAYS ELKS AT ANYOX AND BEAT 'EM

Eight to Seven Result of Spirited Game in Baseball League

ANYOX, June 16.—The great uncertainty of baseball, of what will happen next, is the whole secret of this game's appeal to the fans. No matter how air-tight the game may be, how errorless a team may be playing for innings on end, at any moment the balloon may rise and the fireworks be on. The last game to be staged in the Anyox League was no exception to this rule, and was certainly a mixture of good ball as well as other things too numerous to mention. The Mine and the Elks were responsible for this mixture, in which all kinds of freak plays and stunts had their place. The fans had a great time. The game was won and lost several times, and at the end of the seventh inning was tied up with a seven-seven tally.

Seven inning game is the regular game of the Anyox Baseball schedule, and the umpire started them on an extra innings. The Elks failed to get another in their half of the eighth, the Mine annexing the winning run after two men had been struck out by Fitzpatrick. Greenwell, getting a hit to centre, stole second, got third on a passed ball by catcher, and scored the winning run when C. Ferguson placed a safe hit to short right. The Elks started Draudson to pitch, and he was taken out in the sixth and replaced by Fitzpatrick. The game was then four to five in favor of the Elks. The Mine pitched Bob Matheson, formerly of Port Simpson, who showed a lot of "stuff" and had the best of them guessing at times. His arm went back on him in the seventh, however, and he was replaced by C. Ferguson. Even the umpires were not altogether satisfactory, and the base appointee was chased in the fourth and A. Sinclair substituted for the remainder of the game. The pitcher's records for the game were: Strike outs, by Draudson, four; by Fitzpatrick, three; by Ferguson, eleven. The Elks had five hits and the Mine eleven. Batteries: Mine, Matheson, Ferguson and Greenwell; Elks, Draudson, Fitzpatrick and Eddy. Umpire, W. Olson. The teams:

Mine—Mealey, Greenwell, Ferguson, Anderson, Olson, Corkle, Stewart, Matheson, Pyne. Elks—Downs, Campbell, Cody, Greenwell, McIntyre, McKenna, Draudson, Whitteker, Thorley, Fitzpatrick.

MARRIED LADIES OF ANYOX PLAY SINGLE

Unencumbered Outpoint Their More Fortunate Sisters by Twelve to Eight

ANYOX, June 15.—The event of the outdoor season was the game of baseball staged by teams representing the ladies of Anyox—Married vs. Single. This was in aid of the Union Church, and a splendid collection was secured as a result of the ladies' endeavors to show the fans how real baseball should be played. The teams looked smart in their field uniforms and some good pitching and catching was done by the batteries of both teams, while the fielders occasionally fooled the onlookers by grabbing the high ones out of the air just as well as the mere fellows do it. The batteries were: Married Ladies, Mrs. O. K. Dwyer and Mrs. Wenerstrom, Single Ladies: Miss V. Deane and Miss G. Bashleigh. Both teams showed considerable strength at the bat and hits were frequently, Victoria Deane getting two home runs during the progress of the game, and several others came mightily nearly duplicating this. The final score at the end of the seventh innings was Married Ladies, 8; Single Ladies, 12. The biggest baseball turnout of the season watched this contest and applauded the plays, Umpires, strikes, Matheson, bases, McKenna. By the way, neither of these umpires are married men.

FOOTBALL PLAYED IN DOWNPOUR OF RAIN

ANYOX, June 16.—In another downpour of rain, the football enthusiasts watched a game that was devoid of anything sensational except possibly for the form displayed by "Baker" Robertson for the Elks, who was the bright particular star of the evening, having a happy combination of eye and toe which enabled him to place five goals for his side between the goalposts of the Mine. For the Mine, Varnes scored two of the three which that side achieved, the third being neatly placed between the posts by Currie on a penalty kick. Evans refereed. The line-up follows:

Elks—Goal, Lacey; backs, Ballion and Robertson; half backs, Crawford, Scott and Crevar; forwards, McKenzie, Sellers, O'Connell, Robertson and Hogben. Mine—Goal, Lee; backs, Spears and Pyne; half backs, Vaip, Currie and Jerome; forwards, Twaddle, Cane, Stewart, Greenwell and Forbes.

SONS OF CANADA DEFEAT GROTTTO

Good Senior League Baseball Game Staged Last Night — Extra Inning Required to Decide

The Grotto made their best showing so far this season in the Senior League baseball game last night with the Sons of Canada, but were unable to sustain the lead they had early in the proceedings and lost by a score of 7 to 5. It was a well played game, tight and even, and was devoid of heavy hitting. The Sons scored the first run in the opening frame and the Grotto evened up in the second. In the fourth the Grotto batters scored three and got a nice lead but were only one up at the end of the fifth in which the Canucks scored two. The Grotto made one in the sixth and the Sons two and the score was even. The game was scheduled to go seven innings but no score was made in that period and the teams were still even necessitating another inning. In the eighth the Grotto still remained scoreless while the Sons made two giving them the victory.

The feature play of the evening was a spectacular one-hand catch by Louis Astoria, the Grotto centre fielder, in the seventh after a long backward run. Jack Hatchford was the batsman and two men were on bases, but the side went down as the result of the catch.

D. Lidstone, pitcher for the Sons, excelled himself and had 12 strikeouts to his credit with one walk marked against him. Geo. Walls pitched five innings for the Grotto and was replaced in the sixth by Alex. Roy. Walls made five strikeouts and allowed a similar number of walks. Roy struck out one batter.

There was a good crowd of spectators. P. Laporte and F. V. Delcourt were umpires. The teams took the field as follows: Grotto—Gawthorne, cf; McDougall, 2b; Gilmour, 3b; Walls, p and ss; E. Smith, c; Roy, ss and p; Haudenschild, 1b; Clapp, 1f; Astoria, cf.

BASEBALL TEAM TO PLAY GAME HERE
