CHALLENGE TO KU KLUX KLAN

Knights of Columbus Heads Say They are Fighting for Religious Freedom

MONTREAL, Aug. 10.—Declaring that the Knights of Columbus would stand, in whatever country they operated, against all societies or combines that sought to inject religious and racial bias into government and social life, Supreme Knight James A. Flaherty of Philadelphia, in his address to the Forty-First Supreme International Convention of the Knights of Columbus challenged the Ku Klux Klan or any other opponents or critics of the K. of C. to produce a single fact on which to base their opposition or criticism.

"We can tolerate any reasonable difference of opinion," he stated, "but we shall not tolerate any reflections upon our integrity. The Knights of Columbus have spent forty million dollars entrusted to them by the American public, with the exception of some millions new being devoted to educational and hospitalization work. In Canada the Knights have spent many hundreds of thousands on welfare work. Every dollar has been devoted to that purpose as tens of thousands of ex-service men of all denominations receiving education under the K. of C. auspices can prove, and as any enquirer may see for himself by visiting any of 400 hospitals throughout the country where the Knights of Columbus maintain hospitalization service free for war veterans regardless of creed. Any man who challenges the record must prove his case or abandon it. We have been over patient with our slanderers. We shall not be so in future; the law can be invoked to curb malicious lying."

Catholic Boy

The K. of C. chief declared that the three most important tasks now before the Knights were the satisfactory solution of the Catholic boy problem, connected with which there is a special committee report on the probable formation of a junior K. of C. movement; next, the extension of the K. of C. national correspondence school into a great mail-system university for the 800,000 members of the Order, and then the continuance of the hospital and educational work for disabled men.

"Not until the last dollar of our war fund is expended," Mr. Flaherty declared, "will the Knights of Columbus cease their ministrations to the disabled men in hospitals. There are more than thirty thousand of these men now and the end is not yet. We shall remain with them to the finish."

The Supreme Knight advocated a strong stand against the forces of extreme radicalism by the Knights. "Where radicalism is healthy, it does constructive work; where it is unhealthy, it will be found to consist mostly of violent talk and violent deeds. The K. of C. stand, every man of us, against intemperance of all kinds, political, racial or economic."

Constitutional Rights

He condemned strongly the movement against the parochial schools, as exemplified in the Oregon anti-parochial school amendment. "We shall fight for our constitutional rights," he said, "to the highest tribunal in the land, for we are fighting for religious freedom, without which this or any other nation cannot be free."

The Gilhuly Cup football game between the Sons of Canada and Grotto tonight will be a battle for first place now held by the Sons of England. If the Grotto win a clear victory, they will be one point ahead. If the Sons win they will tie at the top with the Englishmen. A draw will put the Grotto on even footing at the head of the list with the Sons of England and the Canadians will be one point behind. Whichever way things go tonight the standing after will be close and many fans will be personally interested in seeing who gets the advantage that may result from this encounter. The first-half meeting of the Sons of Canada and Grotto in the Gilhuly Cup series resulted in victory for the latter. The Sons are said to be out for revenge this time.

Two big boxing bouts will feature a smoker that is to be staged by the Elks and American Legion at Ketchikan on Labor Day. "Battling" Johnson, claimant to the amateur welterweight belt of Western Canada, and Pat Hollywood, well known Ketchikan fighter, will furnish the main bout. Both men are already in training, the latter being at Sitka just now. The second bout is to be between Joe Manila of Ketchikan and Soldier Passey of Anchorage, both of whom claim the middleweight championship of Alaska. The latter bout, it is said, will be one of the best ever seen in Ketchikan and is attracting interest throughout the territory.

Miss Mary McLennan, one of this year's graduates from the nurses' training school of the Prince Rupert General Hospital, is leaving next week for Alberta where she will visit with her parents before actively taking up her profession.
