PRESIDENT HARDING BEING BURIED TODAY

London Doctor Brings Dead Man Back to Life by Injection of Drug

Funeral of U.S. President is Taking Place This Afternoon
All Work in Country Stopped

MARION, Ohio, Aug. 10.—The day when human eyes would look their last on the face of Warren G. Harding, 29th president of the United States, dawned with thousands who loved him still waiting to pass slowly beside the bier resting in his father's home. Before the shadows of evening steal across the wide peaceful scenes of the valley where he was born, the gates of the tomb will have closed behind him and the long, long way of the funeral have been ended. In gracious kindliness the sorrowful woman who longed for the end of the public ordeal

REVOLUTION IS FEARED IN GERMANY
UNREST IS SHOWN

LONDON, Aug. 10.—A despatch from Berlin says: "Reports from all parts of Germany today show unrest among the workers to be increasing alarmingly. In political circles fears are not concealed that revolution may break out as suddenly as that in November, 1918, did."

LABOR CONFERENCE OF WHOLE EMPIRE
PROPOSED NEXT YEAR

Scheme is to Form Labor Political Organization for Whole British Commonwealth

WINNIPEG, Aug. 10.—Right Hon. Arthur Henderson, secretary of the British Labor Party, writes to J. S. Woodsworth, M.P. of Winnipeg, that the British Labor Party proposes holding a British Empire Conference in London next year if the Dominions will co-operate. The big gathering will be held during the time the British Empire exhibition is there with a view to the formation of a labor political organization for the whole Empire.

Mr. Woodsworth is taking the matter up with all Canadian political parties and consulting labor regarding the reply he will give.

DIED LAST EVENING
AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Matilda White, Mother of Mrs. H. T. Cross, Passed Away at Daughter's Residence

Mrs. Matilda White, mother of Mrs. H. T. Cross, 223 Fourth Ave. West, died last night at 5:30 o'clock at the home of her daughter following a long illness.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—This is the official day of mourning for President Harding in accordance with President Coolidge's proclamation. Banks, business houses, and commercial institutions not essential to the public welfare suspended operations. Memorial services were held at all city churches, traffic on the streets stopped two minutes at noon. Amusement centres are also dark.

Other cities throughout the United States for the most part adopted the same policy. Evening newspapers are not publishing.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Several thousand citizens of Great Britain and United States gathered at Westminster Abbey today to mourn the death of President Harding. Hundreds who were unable to gain admission to the cool recesses of the building lined the streets and squares in the vicinity of the Parliament Buildings. An overflow crowd gathered in the Abbey yard and heard the funeral music played by the great organ.

LIFE WAS INSURED

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—President Harding's life was insured for $52,100 with several companies.

The Duke of Connaught unveiled the war memorial in honor of the Canadian troops who fell at Ypres. The monument is the gift of the Canadian Battlefields Committee.

LOCAL ORANGE LODGE ENTERTAINED LEADING OFFICERS OF ORDER

Dr. Fisher and Mr. Catt of England Gave Addresses at Gathering in Metropole Hall Last Night

Many members of the local Orange Lodge, ladies and gentlemen, and their friends availed themselves of the opportunity last evening of meeting Rev. Dr. T. J. Williams-Fisher, chaplain of the Triennial Council of the World, and David Catt, deputy grand master of England, and listening to their addresses.

There was a formal lodge meeting after which the Metropole Hall was thrown open to the public. W. W. Wright, master of the local lodge presided.

Dr. Fisher, who is a prominent cleric in Birmingham, England, spoke on the important place that the Orange Lodge held in the British Empire. He urged continuation of enthusiasm in the work of the order.

Mr. Catt, a well-known London business man, gave some of his impressions of Canada. Referring to Prince Rupert, he said that the port was in a strategic position and was bound to be one of the Empire's great commercial centres.

Dr. Fisher and Mr. Catt are on an extensive tour of Canada. They have been away from England since early in June and do not expect to return until the end of October. Both will lecture this winter in the Old Country on Canada. They sailed for the south on the steamer Prince George.

Tom Dybavik sailed on the Prince George last night for Seattle.

CAPT. NEWCOMBE
SUPERANNUATED

One of Coast's Best-Known Mariners Receives Retirement at His Own Request

After more than twenty years of service with the government, Capt. Holmes Newcombe of the Dominion Fisheries protection service has been superannuated from August 1.

Capt. Newcombe, who is one of the best known mariners on the British Columbia coast, has been in the province for more than thirty-two years. He came west as a young man from New Brunswick and for twelve years he was senior master of the Union Steamship Co., many of those who are now in command of that company's steamers having sailed before the mast under him. In 1903 he joined the Dominion Fisheries service and his first command was the old Kestrel. He also skippered the William Joliffe and the Roman.

His last ship, the Malaspina, he commanded for many years up till the date of his retirement which was granted on his own request.

In the course of his long service, Capt. Newcombe has won a splendid reputation for the fearless and just manner in which he enforced Canadian regulations. He was the terror of American poaching vessels many of which he captured.

BANDITS GOT HAUL QUEBEC

Blew Safe in Banque Nationale at Yamaska and Secured $5,000 in Bills

QUEBEC, Aug. 10.—Five armed masked bandits blew the safe of the Banque Nationale at East Yamaska and escaped with $5,000 in bills and negotiable securities. The bandits cut the telephone wires and thus prevented the alarm being given.

CANADA'S DEBT

Gross Decreased Forty Seven Million During Year Ending July 31.

OTTAWA, Aug. 10.—Canada's debt was $2,403,235,609 at the end of July or a decrease of $6,000,000 during the month. The gross debt was $2,929,212,777 or $3,000,000 higher for the month. The difference between the two statements is explained by the increase of Dominion funds over and above those classified as inactive such as railroads.

The gross debt dropped $47,000,000 in the year which ended July 31.
