THELMA DUE HERE FRIDAY

Local Mailboat Boat is Virtually Stripped Clean Above Deck—All Gear Lost

Beating the marks of her terrific pounding by heavy seas off the Fairweather fishing grounds last week, in the course of which storm she lost two members of her crew, Tom Wilson and Spencer Allen, both well known fishermen of this port, the Canadian mailboat schooner Thelma No. 1, Capt. George Fritz, is expected here some time tomorrow, according to latest word received on the waterfront.

The Thelma crossed at Juneau early Tuesday under tow of the Lithia. Scurvily the Olympic, after making temporary repairs at Yakutat late last week, the vessel left there under her own power but off Pt. Adolphus the engine crankshaft broke and she was forced to put into shelter, being picked up there by the Lithia and brought to Juneau.

The craft is virtually stripped clean above deck. Her mast is bent out; the whistle carried away, leaving only a small stub of metal to show where it had been; her deck lights are swept away; handrails alongside the pilot house are sheared off cleanly; all the gear and dories, anchor, etc., stowed on deck was taken, and the brass steering wheel, located forward on the outside of the pilot house, is badly bent where a member of the crew landed it and held on until the force of the pounding sea broke his hold and swept him away. This was one of the men who was drowned. The hull of the ship is undamaged but beneath the deck, the force of the waves split lengthwise the pinboards, or partitions. Filled with water, without power and your headstone to the sea as she was driven before a heavy wind, the Thelma was kept afloat for two days while the surviving members of the crew bailed and pumped out the water and worked to get the engine started. With her power restored, Capt. Fritz took the ship to Yakutat at the end of that time.

WATERFRONT SWEEP BY SOUTHWEST GALE

Little Damage Was Done by Last Evening's Duster, However

The waterfront was swept by a strong southwesterly gale last night but no damage was done to boats. The Prince Rupert Rowing and Yacht Club wharf came in for a grueling while several boats in Cow Bay pulled out for more sheltered anchorage. Several boats at the yacht club broke their bows and stern lines but no particular damage was done.

WIFE WAS CRUEL SO HUSBAND ASKS DIVORCE

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 22.—The "Diggs Bill" recently passed by the Alabama Legislature, and which provides that a man can obtain a divorce on the grounds of cruelty if his life is threatened by his wife, now is undergoing its first test. The "Digger" happens to be a toady, A. Green Rutledge, who has filed suit for divorce against his wife, Annie Rutledge.

Green charges he has been the victim of dispiriting, dishonest, well-aimed rolling pins and even more.

"She's been picking on me for five years because I couldn't give her all the luxuries of life," Green said, "and when she got mad she used her rolling pins on me."

"Your constituents say your speeches are not as convincing as they used to be," replied Senator Scurham. "It's dangerous to convince a crowd of voters so thoroughly that you won't be able to make them follow a new line of argument in case circumstances render it necessary for you to change your mind."—Washington Star.

SOME IMPROVEMENT

"Father," confessed the callow youth, "I have married her. We are two souls with but a single thought."

"Well, you've gained something. A single thought isn't so many, but it is one more than I ever knew you to have before."—From the Boston Post.

AN AWFUL ATTACK OF PIMPLES ALL OVER HIS FACE

Pimples breaking out on the face and other parts of the body is a sure sign that the blood is not in proper shape.

While the skin is the object of the attack the real seat of the disease is in the blood on account of the entire circulation being poisoned.

Burdock Blood Purifier quickly and effectively removes pimples and all other skin diseases as it goes right to the root of the trouble by cleansing and enriching the blood.

Mr. Conrad Anderson, Kildare, Sask., writes—"A year ago I had a fatal attack of pimples. They broke out all over my face and I could not get rid of them in any way. One day a friend told me about your Burdock Blood Purifier and let me have a bottle to try in space. After using it I noticed a change, so I bought three more bottles, and now I don't know there is such a thing as pimples."

Burdock Blood Purifier is manufactured only by The T. Wilson Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
