ARMISTICE DAY.
Five years ago an armistice was signed which led to the peace of Versailles. Five years ago fighting stopped in France and Germany and the most horrible war of history came to an end. Five years have passed and yet the countries are still discussing the terms of peace and trying to force Germany to a realization that she was the losing nation.

Today we look back on the Great War somewhat as an event in history rather than as a vital factor that is still influencing our lives. While it was necessary to fight, yet victors as well as vanquished still suffer as a result of the conflict. The world has changed and it will yet be many years before the evil effects of the great event have passed away.

We shall always remember the wonderful bravery of the men, the feats of endurance and suffering, the awful mortality. The men who fought there were heroes, whether they gave their lives or not. Once a year we remember their great deeds and then we turn again to the battle of life and carry on. It does not do to dwell too long on the past. The future is before us but now and then turn and glance back and let the mind dwell on the great deeds of the young men who fought for us.

IS ACQUITTED MURDER CHARGE

Salvadore Varin Fought With Man Who Died from Injuries Later

VANCOUVER, Nov. 10.—Salvadore Varin was acquitted yesterday by the assize jury after lengthy deliberation of the murder of Knute Hansen who died of injuries said to have been received when he fought with him over the latter's wife last July 20.

Hansen and Mrs. Varin were said to have been both intoxicated when the quarrel with Varin took place on a Vancouver street in the heart of the city. The Varins had been married two months.

In a letter written to his wife while he was hiding in Seattle after the assault on Hansen, Varin offered to take his wife back if she would "lead a better life."

In acquitting the prisoner neither the jury nor the judge added any comment to the verdict.

OTTAWA, Nov. 10.—The Canada Gazette appoints Chief Justice James A. Macdonald of the B.C. Court of Appeal as administrator during the absence from the province of Lieut. Governor Nichol.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 10.—The Dutch government announced today that the former Crown Prince of Germany crossed the German frontier this morning en route to Oels, Upper Silesia, where his estate is situated. It is understood he left Wieringen at four o'clock this morning.

THE HAGUE, Nov. 10.—It is officially stated here that both the Dutch and German governments granted the former German crown prince permission to return to Germany.

UTRECHT, Holland, Nov. 10.—Rumors circulating here are that the ex-crown prince of Germany has gone to Germany to put himself at the head of a monarchist movement, but verification is lacking.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—The entente allies will insist vigorously at Berlin that the former crown prince who entered Germany today be expelled from German territory. France and Britain exchanged views during the past few days on the subject.

Sensation in London

LONDON, Nov. 10.—A sensation was caused here today by the news that the former crown prince of Germany had returned to his own country, the general opinion being that he would place himself at the head of the revolutionary movement being worked up by the monarchists. The very fact that he chose this time to make the move was sufficient to rouse the interest of the British people. The general opinion is that instead of being sent back to Holland he will be placed in some more secure place to avoid a repetition of the move.

GERMAN REVOLUTION HAS BEEN QUELLED

BERLIN, Nov. 10.—The Bavarian revolution apparently has been quelled and its leaders Von Hitler and General Ludendorff are fugitives from justice. Conditions are tranquil throughout Germany with Government troops in command of the situation.

VICTORIA, Nov. 10.—Liquor sold by the Government stores from March 31 to Sept. 30 this year amounted in value to $5,747,624.

October returns which are incomplete will augment this amount by $930,193.

Over a six month period the Government's liquor sales were slightly under the estimate of million dollars a month. This information was given to the Legislature by Hon. A. M. Manson, attorney general, yesterday.

Searching Inquiry to be Made into all P.G.E. Railway Matters Premier Oliver tells Opposition

VICTORIA, Nov. 10.—The government has ordered a most searching investigation into the affairs of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway. Price Waterhouse, the chartered accountants, are to go to the bottom of every dollar paid out by the railway to the Northern Construction Company, the builders of the line. The investigation will also sift each of 54 charges of wrong doing in railway administration made in "The Searchlight," a Vancouver publication of the Provincial Party.

W. K. Esling, M.L.A., chief railway critic of the opposition in the Legislature, will be given every opportunity to examine the books of the P.G.E. railway. These announcements were made by Premier Oliver yesterday in answer to demands from the Conservative opposition for light on P.G.E. matters.

SALMON PACK FOR DISTRICT

Final and Complete Figures From all Points Except Islands

The total salmon pack for the 1923 season in District No. 2, which includes the Naas River, Skeena River, Central division, Bella Coola, Kimsquit, Rivers Inlet, Smith's Inlet and Queen Charlotte Islands, is estimated at 877,548 cases. The estimate is based on final and complete figures from all sections of the district with the exception of the Queen Charlotte Islands which have been delayed in arriving at the office of the inspector of fisheries on account of recent stormy weather. The total indicates that the past season has been an average one in quantity of salmon taken. The total for 1922 was 901,167; for 1921, 416,323 cases; 1920, 881,113 cases and 1919, 884,999.

Sockeyes Plentiful

For the district as a whole an increase in the sockeye pack of about 60,000 cases is indicated comparing 1923 with 1922. The pack of sockeyes was somewhat lower than last year and there was a slight decrease in steelheads. Cohoes show a slight increase while the pink pack is down something over twenty-five per cent. The chum pack in 1923 is some 10,000 cases higher than last year.

Figures per species for the two years are as follows:

	1923	1922
Sockeye	286,173	225,279
Springs	18,490	21,123
Steelheads	1,645	1,652
Cohoes	59,568	52,790
Pinks	330,119	479,119
Chums	161,553	120,950

Totals 857,548 901,167

In total pack of all species the Naas River shows a falling off this year of 25,000 cases as compared with 1922. Skeena district shows a decrease of 23,000 cases which, of course, does not amount to as high a percentage as the Naas River decrease. Rivers Inlet including Smith Inlet shows a large increase with the total for 1923 standing at 127,741 cases as compared with a total of 92,696 cases in 1922. The central division pack this year is about double of last, while the Bella Coola pack is just slightly lower. The Queen Charlotte Island pack stands at 11,129 cases to date with an estimated 15,000 or 20,000 cases yet to be accounted for. The total for the Islands this year will be just about a quarter of last years.

Comparative figures for the 1923 and 1922 packs in various sections of the district follows:

Naas River	1923	1922
Sockeye	17,798	31,327
Springs	3,400	2,104
Steelheads	472	193
Cohoes	7,868	3,533
Pinks	44,166	75,687
Chums	25,708	11,277

99,410 124,121

It will be noted that there was a large drop in the sockeye and pink pack on the Naas River this year while less important varieties show an increase.

Skeena River

	1923	1922
Sockeye	132,000	124,121
Spring	12,147	14,494
Steelheads	418	1,050
Cohoe	31,968	24,073
Pinks	145,433	203,555
Chums	16,178	17,668

Total 338,111 362,055

large decrease. The coho pack was somewhat higher and the chum pack slightly lower.

1923 1922

It will be noted that there was a large drop in the sockeye and pink pack on the Naas River this year while less important varieties show an increase.

On the Skeena River this year there was a large increase of 31,000 cases in the sockeye pack while the pink pack shows a

FARRIS ASKS MORE LIBERAL REGULATIONS FOR BEER DRINKING

VICTORIA, Nov. 10.—Strong advocacy of more liberal regulations whereunder beer may be sold was voiced by J. W. DeB. Farris, former attorney general, in the Legislature yesterday. He declared frankly he did not like the present situation, which he held encouraged drinking of stronger liquors under conditions which placed before the youth of the province temptations which the government should no longer allow to exist. "Experience has shown that beer drinking must go hand in hand with opportunities for drinking," said Mr. Farris. Increased government assistance for the mining industries of British Columbia was urged by J. B. Schofield of Trail.

YOUNG HUNTER LOST IN WOODS

Police Search Party Leaves for Grenville Channel in Quest of Bartell Hedstrom

Having been missed by his comrades while on a hunting trip in Grenville Channel about 20 miles down the coast from here, Bartell Hedstrom, a youth in the employ of Akerberg & Thomson, is the object of a search party headed by Special Provincial Constable George Grate and Capt. John Hansen of the fishing boat Fisher which left the city this morning. Capt. Hanson reported to the provincial police last night that young Hedstrom had been missing from the hunting party for a couple of days and that they had searched a day and a half for him but without avail. The boat then left for Prince Rupert to obtain further assistance in making the search and a man was left behind to keep on the watch for the youth if he should make his appearance.

CONSUL SPEAKS BEFORE SCOTS

Gave Interesting Address Last Night on Twenty-Five Years in Diplomatic Service

Telling of his experiences during 25 years in the United States consular service, E. A. Wakefield, U.S. consul, delivered a highly instructive and interesting address before the St. Andrew's Society. Over half of Mr. Wakefield's time in consular work has been spent in Canada, for he started out in Orillia, Ontario, in 1898 and spent ten years there. He served two years at Rangoon, British Burma, and eight years at Port Elizabeth, South Africa, before coming to Prince Rupert. The consul referred to the fact that his entire service had been in British territory and he expressed his special liking for Canada. While speaking of Rangoon, Mr. Wakefield made the statement that more rice was exported from that centre than from all other rice exporting ports of the world put together. Over two million tons was exported during a year he was there.
