MOOSE XMAS TREE WAS FINE AFFAIR

One Hundred and Fifty Youngsters Enjoyed Program and Received Gifts

Loyal Order of the Moose and ladies of the Mooseheart Legion were hosts to some 150 kiddies and many grown-ups at a delightful Christmas Tree entertainment yesterday afternoon in the Metropole Hall. There was a program of recitations, songs and instrumental numbers after which Santa Claus appeared on the scene and distributed gifts to all of the youngsters present.

The proceedings were opened by Mayor Newton and those contributing to the program were Ernest Batchford, Ralph Johnson, Alf Larsen, Margaret Mussallem and Mrs. Scadden with recitations; Mrs. J. Field and Gillis Royer, vocal solos; Catherine Mussallem, an instrumental solo; Marjorie Batchford, a dance, and Freda and Adele Mussallem, a vocal duet.

The committee in charge of the affair comprised Mrs. J. Batchford, Mrs. Alf Christiansen, Mrs. Thor Johnson, Mrs. Harris Kerr, Mrs. J. Field, N. Mussallem, F. Scadden, P. Cameron, Gillis Royer, Joe Slagnard and Joe Sigmund.

MUSIC AT HOSPITAL BY LADIES' MUSICAL CLUB DELIGHTED ALL

The active members of the Prince Rupert Ladies' Musical Club visited the General Hospital yesterday afternoon and gave the patients and nurses a delightful hour of music.

The musical program opened with the Christmas carol "The First Noel" by the ladies' choir and orchestra. Mrs. J. P. McMillan sang "The Birthday of a King." The ladies' orchestra rendered the march "Live Wire." Mrs. P. S. Bonney sang "My Task." A trio consisting of Mrs. J. P. McMillan, Mrs. R. Blanco and Mrs. S. Darton sang "The Old Folks at Home." There was a selection by the orchestra, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia." Mrs. N. B. Walton sang "God Remembers When the World Forgets," and Mrs. C. Woodworth "The Song The Angels Sang." The program concluded with the Christmas carol, "Holy Night," by the ladies' choir and orchestra. Mrs. J. A. Hinton was the accompanist.

The ladies' choir consisted of Mrs. P. S. Bonney, Mrs. R. Blanco, Mrs. N. B. Walton, Mrs. S. Darton, Mrs. J. P. McMillan, and Mrs. C. Woodworth. The orchestra consisted of Mrs. G. A. Bryant, Mrs. J. CHRISTMAS TREE BY ODDFELLOWS AND REBEKAHS

The Christmas tree entertainment held Saturday afternoon by the Oddfellows and Rebekahs in the Metropole Hall proved a most delightful affair for the seventy or so children, many of them accompanied by their parents, who attended. Songs, piano solos and recitations made up the program which was followed by the appearance of Santa Claus, with presents for all and the serving of refreshments. The proceedings closed with the singing of "O Canada."

Taking part in the program were Eadye and Eva Morris, Willie Balsillie, Beatrice and Eric Benner, Bobbie and Allen Hale, Phyllis and Edna Ireland, Ruth and Edith Wilkinson, Donnie and Herbert Morgan, Rosie Cox, Helen Sims, Willie, George and Neil McLean, Ida and Susie Beddie, Winnifred, Muriel and Earl Ely, Doris and Edith Leek, Evelyn Delgarno, Aleita and Beulah McKinley, Billie Smith and Bobbie Irvine and Miss Irene Morrison.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. S. V. Cox, Mrs. James Simpson and Mrs. Phil McDonald. Assistance was given by the social committee and many other members of the Rebekah order.

WILD DEER BECOME CALIFORNIA PETS

Motor Cars Fail to Frighten Them and They Feed From Children's Hands

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 24.—Wild deer from the foothills above the Santa Clara valley have descended to safe pastures adjacent to Palo Alto and Los Altos, about 45 miles from San Francisco, and have become so tame that they trot nonchalantly along highways.

Even terrifying motor cars fail to make the arrivals scamper into the brush. In several instances children have fed them from their hands. Shooting is prohibited in the immediate vicinity.

After visiting relatives for the past two months in New York and Washington, Mrs. Paul Aivazoff has returned to Vancouver to join her husband.

In the Letter Box

XMAS MESSAGE BY SPIRITUAL RADIO

Editor, Daily News.

We are told that comparatively few people are thinking their own thoughts but are receiving the thoughts thrown out upon the universal ethereal waves. The original thinker only thinks for himself.

In a very remarkable book written by Elsa Barker entitled "The Letters of a Living Dead Man," this most remarkable statement occurs — "Frederick the Great of Prussia was the primary cause of the great European war. He left an impress on the ethers of Germany which poisoned the minds of all his followers — mentally and physically—as German modern history shows stirring up the brute force in man."

Shall we then—as many as can conceive this to be a scientific fact—send forth this Xmas morn, broadcast on the ethereal waves to the chaos and confusion of the nations of the world, the glorious Xmas message sung by the angel host of old.

"Glory to God in the Highest and on earth peace, goodwill towards men."

Lloyd George, addressing the British house of Parliament, gave utterance to the following prophecy:

"Gentlemen! This world wide trouble is fast growing beyond human control but I see before me a government in which all religious prejudices shall cease, a government in which the much desired condition shall be attained of the universal fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, a government that is founded on justice and whose workings are based on love. This government comes not from the hands of feeble man, but from power of Almighty God. The government shall be on His shoulders and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace, and of His government there shall be no end."

JAMES L. BREWSTER

PRINCE GEORGE

E. Bashaw of Bashaw Lumber Co. of Dewey spent a few days in the city on business.

Mrs. Alex. Moffat has received the sad news of the death of her brother, Raymond, at Cumberland, B.C.

Jack Johnson is coming back to Prince George to be a lumberman. He will be associated with his brother in the mill of the Al. Johnson Lumber Co. at Hansard.

Mrs. A. McB. Young returned to Prince George on Friday evening after an extended visit to her former home in New York state.

Mrs. Alex. Moffat, nee Miss Norwood, who taught division five in the public school last term, has been advised that her class won the prize for physical training last term. Mrs. Moffat's class in South Fort George were likewise successful in winning a similar prize in 1922.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wilson, at the city hospital on Friday, December 14.

Mrs. R. A. Renwick and the Misses Kate, Marjorie and Maud left on Saturday's train for Vancouver via Prince Rupert.

Mrs. F. W. Steacy and infant daughter have returned to Prince George from New Westminster.

Mrs. George Snell of Vanderhoof has arrived in the city to take chiropractic treatment.

"Terry" Johnson has received a wire from Jimmie Williams notifying him of the death of Mrs. Williams on the coast.

E. S. Peters, sheriff for the County of Cariboo, moved into his new offices in the government buildings yesterday. The sheriff has held down his job for thirteen years but during the whole of this period he was forced to rustle shacks for office purposes. The first one was in Quesnel and it was so small that the sheriff had to come out to let any other person come in. The result was most of the official business was transacted on a big fir stump in the middle of the road.

Several shipments of buffalo meat have arrived in the city recently from the Dominion government buffalo park at Wainwright, Alta., and the meat is on sale at the local butcher shops. The government buffalo herd has increased at such a pace during their captivity in the Wainwright park that it has become necessary to slaughter a number of the animals. The meat is much like beef in taste but perhaps a trifle redder in color.
