Doc's Birthday

Doc Clapperton celebrated his fourth birthday on Tuesin real nautical style at his winter home. To see Doc knee deep in a crib argument or running a race with Paddy, his canine pet, one would think he was probably 64 honor to Doc the Admiral of the fleet, accompanied by his officials and members of the high |boot squad made a visit during | the evening. The evening was spent in music, songs and speeches. One of the outstanding features of the entertainment was the Admiral's rendering of Home Sweet Home on the piano with his nose. Taking up a position on his knees the old man pushed down the notes on the piano with his nose thereby giving a very pathetic interpretation of the old time favorite. In the excitement someone playfully bumped his head on the key board. The Admiral said he had never played the piece with such feeling before. At midnight Doc dug up some bread and cheese and a jugful of root beer. The beer was fine but the root spoiled the taste according to the gang. The gathering dispersed without any casual-

Why Can't We Save?

NCE again you say this as you find that expenses have eaten up all your income. How is it that other people, with no larger incomes than yours, are able to buy many things you cannot afford? Perhaps it is because you have no definite plan of allotting your income. Our useful Memoranda Book, which the Manager will be glad to give you, contains Budgets for both families and individuals. It will help you to plan your expenses with something to spare. A few hundred dollars in the Bank will give you a wonderful feeling of security and independence.
