The school board budget for the month of November totalling $6,658.43 was passed for payment at last night's meeting of the board. The total included $6,015.04 in salaries and $633.39 in accounts .

C. R. Neill, Ketchikan sawmill operator, who has been on a business trip to Seattle and elsewhere in the south, was a passenger on board the Princess Norah this morning returning to Ketchikan.

One of the classes at Booth Memorial School now located in a small room with rather poor ventilation will be moved to a larger and more commodious room which has now become available, having formerly been used by the domestic science department. The change was authorized at last night's meeting of the school board. In making the change, it will be only necessary to move a blackboard.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of school trustees was held last evening in the city council chamber, the session lasting the better part of two hours. Those present were W. J. Greer, chairman, J. J. Gillis, D. C. Schubert and W. O. Fulton, trustees; John O. Williamson, secretary; Misses E. A. Mercer, E. E. Lucas, J. D. Moffatt and Margaret Palmer, principals, and W S. Day of Vancouver and S. D. Johnston of this city who discussed insurance matters with the board.

In a report to the board of school trustees which was read at last night's meeting, Miss Jessie McLenaghan, director of home economics for the Department of Education, spoke favorably of the domestic science work being carrie on here by Miss E. White, the local instructress. Miss McLenaghan remarked that it seemed poor economy to get such little value as was now being obtained from such splendid equipment that had been installed at such heavy capital expenditure here.
