The Popularity

TEA

H389

has been earned on merit only One trial will convince you.

THE DAILY NEWS

PRINCE RUPERT - BRITISH COLUMBIA Published Every Afternoon, except Sunday, the Prince Rupert Daily News, Limited, Third Avenue.

H. F. PULLEN, Managing Editor.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:

City Delivery, by mail or carrier, per month............$1.00 trade in this fish from Prince I UIIIII By mail to all parts of the British Empire and the United States, Rupert, so far as Boston is con-

TELEPHONE 08 Contract Rates on Application.

All advertising should be in The Dally News Office on day pre- that which inhabits the Pacific, ceding publication. All advertising received subject to approval. and their taste seems to be shared

Member of Audit Bureau of Circulations.

DAILY EDITION

WEIGHT Wednesday, Nov. 7, 1923.

Government Control Alberta Province.

The province of Alberta has gone on record in favor of sale this market. of liquor by the government under somewhat similar conditions to those obtaining in British Columbia. It has turned down pro- | Salmon, mackerel and smelts hibition after a fairly long trial.

Alberta is taking the cycle of human variableness. Prohibi- and ready market in Boston and tion was not quite what they expected and neither will govern- New York, and during the seasons ment control quite come up to their expectations. They will large shipments of these fish are probably make several more changes before they get back to pro- made from that point. The salhibition again.

It is found that in this province the people are becoming a and July and smells are ready at little restive under government control, one section wishing to about this season of the year return to prohibition and the other section asking for more The mackerel is a fish with laxity in the sale of beer and light wines. To adopt the latter penchant for roaming and he

The demos is a seething mass that is always squirming and of worry. There is no certainty writhing and twisting and changing, trying to emerge into some- as to the spot in which he will thing better but being dragged back often into something worse. school. One summer they were Government by this seething mass is what we term democracy. found in large quantities off the It is subject to many changes and sometimes the changes are for Gaspe coast. The next summer the better and sometimes for the worse.

Making Profits In United States.

American capital is being invested in Canada and many of off the Halifax harbor. Wherever the Canadian industries are controlled from the cities of the re- they are found there is a great public. On the other hand the Canadian nation owns a great rush of fishermen for the meat many miles of railways in the United States and these made pro-|brings a good price in the Amerifits over and above running expenses amounting to about six can market. million dollars for the first eight months of the present year. That is almost a dollar each for the people of Canada. This Trade in swordfish is one profit relieves the Canadian taxpayer a great deal. It looks to which comparatively few Canaus as if the annexing of the United States by Canada has com- dians realize is an important one menced.

Germans Are Very Progressive.

The Germans are certainly a very progressive people. They and always find a good market in Hotel with the banjo in his practically two months and redo not fail for want of trying. A few days ago there came to the Boston and New York. Accord- hands. She had told him to put membered nothing about the editorial desk an advertisement sent out from a German city of ing to G. E. Belrose, traffic it back or he would get in trouble, banjo. Answering W. E. Fisher, a new ladies journal printed in French, "Suzanne." The cover superintendent of the Canadian He had asked her to claim the crown prosecutor, Atkins said he piece is quite artistic and on it are the sub-titles "La Plus Elegante National Express, these are Revue de Modes," and "300 Creations Dernier Cri." The proposal difficult fish to handle, as they so fearing she would get into mitted having been in trouble be-

While the French are making an effort to extort the last weigh more than 500 pounds. possible dollar from the German people for reparations, the Germans are planning to invade the French publishing field and put PREMENT out French journals controlled by German capital and published PREMENT in a German city.

Electioneering Commences Early.

Electioneering has commenced early this year. With two Head of Australian Government is mayorally candidates announced and a third looked upon as certain, and with several other possibilities there should be an interesting time during the next two months.

No announcements have yet been made in connection with the council but doubtless there will be a pretty good crop of can- mier Baldwin is undoubtedly a reached the city and was short Major R. M. Taylor, district for a person who is well known there is not much advantage advocacy of the scheme for free $10 and took the banjo. On Mon- lie works department, was a in being in the field early, but for one who is not known generally trade within the Empire and pro- day accused did not turn up and passenger for Smithers on last to the citizens it is well to declare the candidature early so that tection against all outsiders, on Tuesday he (witness) heard night's train. the electors may get accustomed to the name and have an oppor- much of the credit for forcing that a banjo was missing. He tunity of studying the candidate's record.

CLORIA SWANSON AND THEODORE ROBERTS IN THE PARAMOUNT PICTURE PRODICAL DAUGHTERS Showing at the Westholme Theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

PACIFIC COAST

York to Atlantic Product and Given Preference

MONTREAL, Nov. 6.—Accord- with severe colds, and we didn't seem to be able to get any relief from anything we ing to the records of the Cana- used until, one day a friend came in and dian National Express the people told me we would be sure to get rid of of the Eastern United States are our colds if we used br. Wood's Norway. showing preference for Canadian Pine Syrup. I decided to take her advice, and in no time our colds were all gone. fish. This is particularly true of Now, knowning the Boston and New York, to which remedy, we will always keep it on hand markets large shipments of fish so as to have it in case of emergency." from Prince Rupert, the Gaspe Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is 35c coast and the Maritime Provinces a bottle; large family size 60c; put up are made annually.

Although the discovery of new halibut beds in the Atlantic has. to a certain extent, cut down the cific Coast fishermen disdain the quality of Atlantic halibut, which On Charge of Stealing $121 Banjo they claim is much inferior to in by connoisseurs in fish in New York. Shipments of halfbut and salmon by the Canadian National Express from Prince Rupert to New York average from 80 to 100 cars monthly the year round. Pittsburg and Philadelphia are also large buyers of fish from

Mackerel Elusive

from the Gaspe coast find a huge mon are at their best during June would probably speed up the time for the adoption of the former. causes the express officials plenty Ithey had moved to the Straits of Northumberland, and before returning again to the Gaspe coast they spent a summer schooling > in this country. These fish are caught in large quantities off the coast of Cape Breton, near the lentrance to the Bras d'Or Lakes. is to circulate it everywhere that French is spoken.

Conducting Campaign in Britain

LONDON. Nov. 6 .- While Pre- $10. He had said that he had just protectionist and is sincere in his of funds. Witness gave accused engineer for the provincial pubthe issue at the present time is notified the chief of police that IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH given to Premier Bruce of Aus- he had a banjo and had handed in the Matter of The Administration Act; tralia, who, in season and out of it over. He next saw accused in In the Matter of the Estate of George season, has been advocating the the dock at the police court. plan. It seems to be his mission Witness identified the banjo and in London today.

Australia like Canada is a large reaffirming this statement when Mercer, deceased, and all parties having producer and requires markets, asked by accused if he was not claims against the said Estate are hereby Premier Bruce tells the British drunk. people that he would like hun- City Police Constable Macdondreds of thousands of them to go to Australia to settle up the vacant lands of that country, but it is useless to go unless they have markets for their products. His method of providing that market is to have free trade within the Empire and protection against the rest of the world. The campaign for protection is now well under way and all the prophets are confounded as to what will be the outcome. Officially labor has declared against it but individually nobody knows yet which way labor will swing. If the workingmen think they see profit in protection they will vote for it.

THE WHOLE FAMILY WAS LAID UP WITH SEVERE COLDS

bronchitis, pneumonia, or other

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited,

FOUND GUILTY

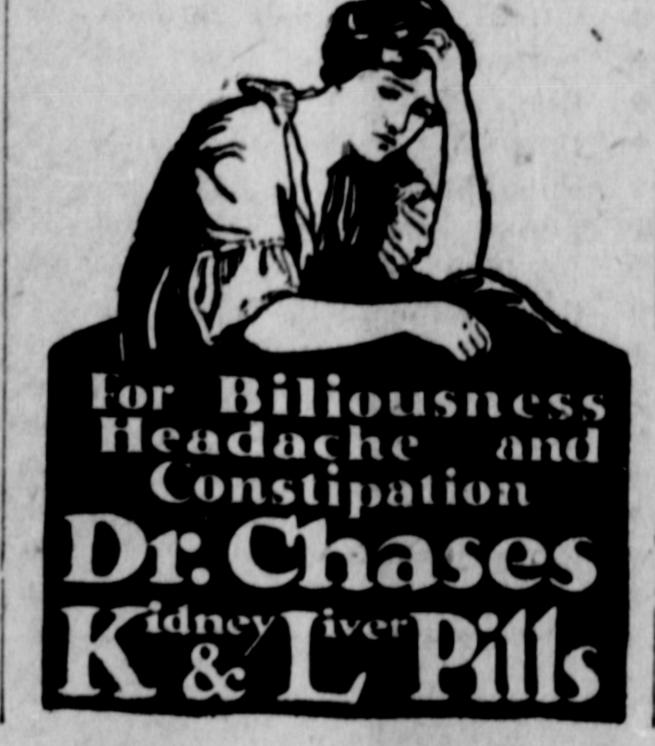

-Sentence Reserved Till Thursday Morning

Tommy Atkins, charged with the theft of a banjo valued at $121 from James Prevost, Indian, was found guilty by the jury at the Supreme Court assizes yesterday afternoon and was remanded for sentence until Thursday morning. The case was brief one and lasted hardly an hour, the jury being out only about ten minutes. The jurymen were J. G. Moody (foreman) Frank St. (Armour, John W. Moorehouse, James Hampton. Herman Capstick, C. O. Rowe, Ben Self, David Scott, Robert Gordon, John Sundberg, Thomas Sproat and Frank Brochu. Mrs. Agnes Glennie was challenged by accused who had no counsel.

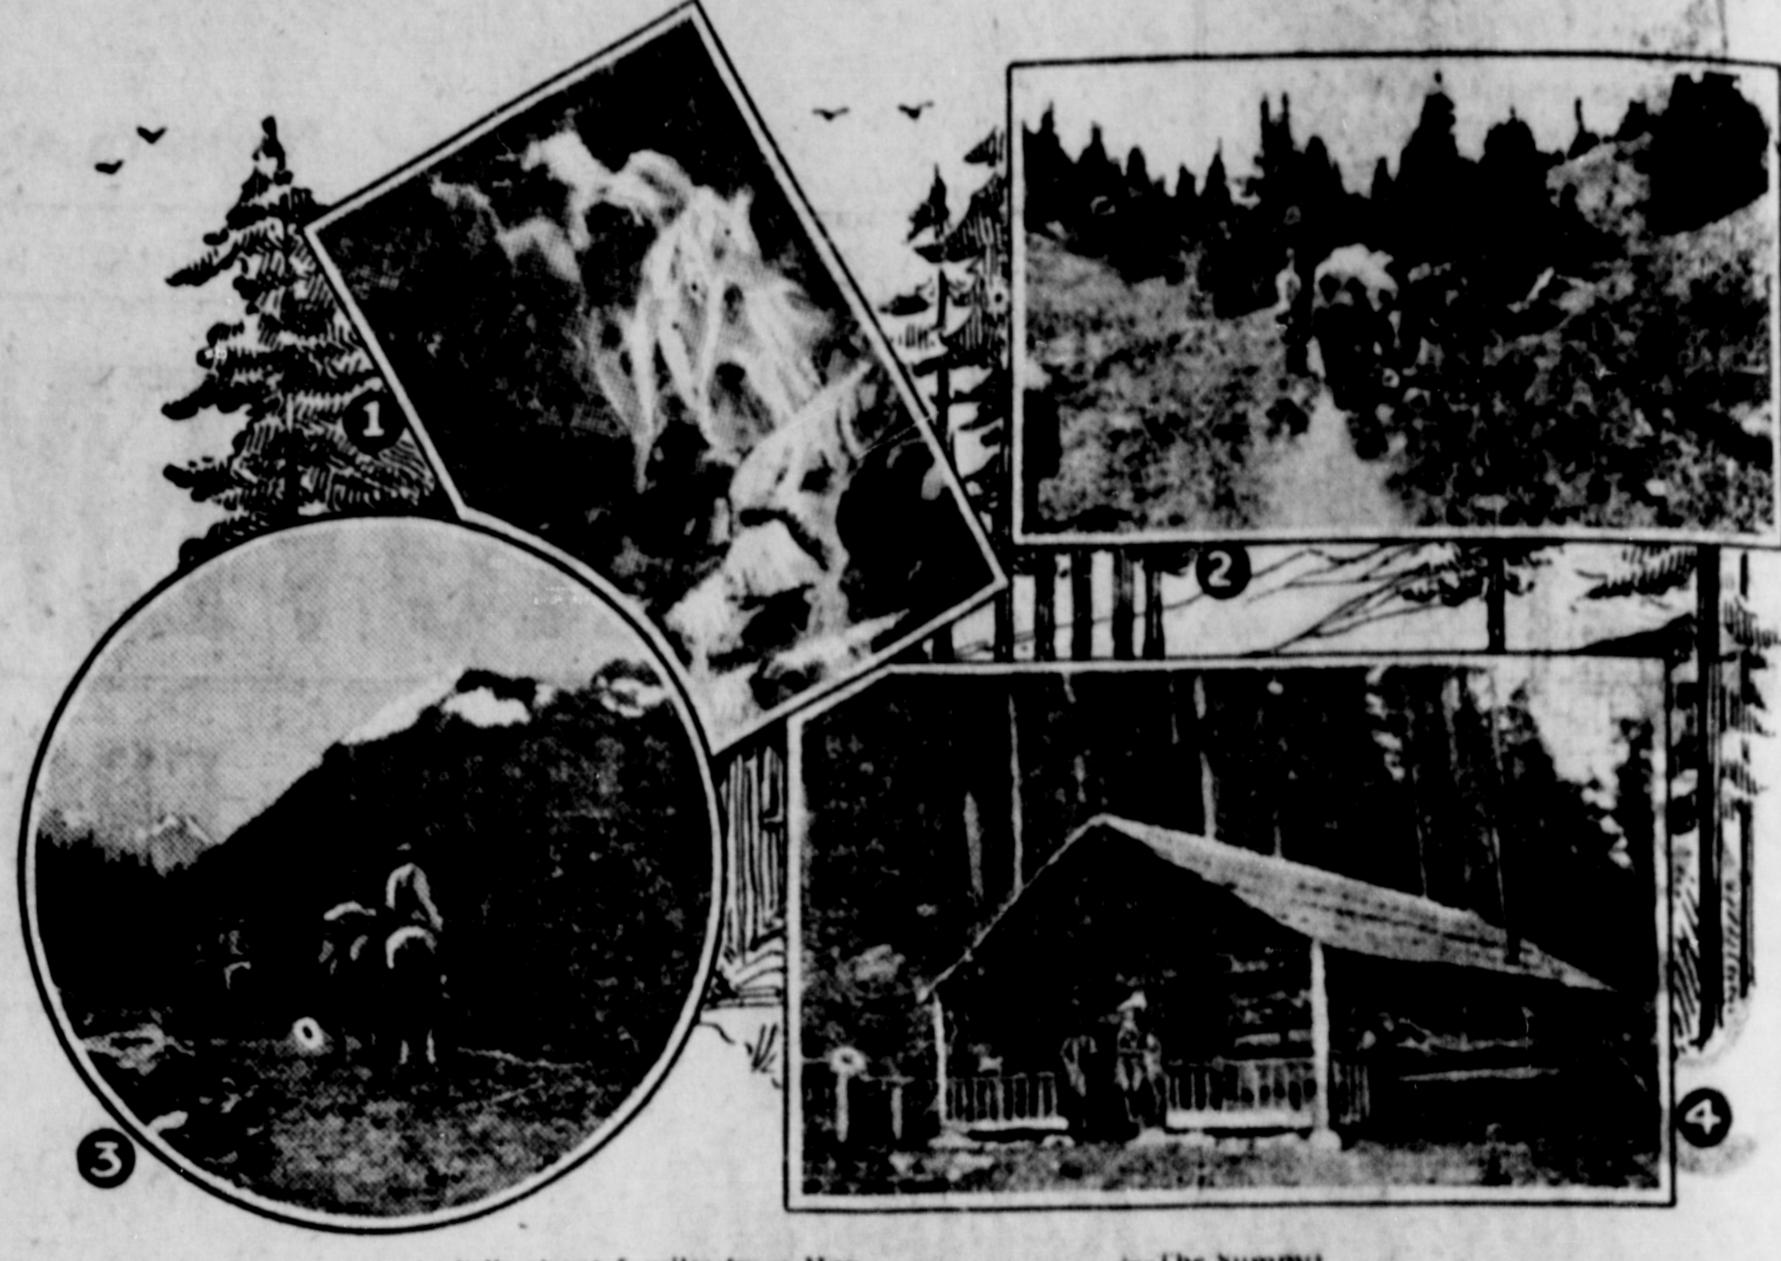

James Prevost, the owner of the banjo, was the first witness. Stating that his home was at Metlakatla and that he lived in Prince Rupert, Prevost told of the banjo being stolen from his room in the King George Hotel on August 19. He had given no one permission or authority to cused and had never seen him before but he identified the banjo. Questioned by Mr. Justice Macdonald, witness stated he police court after having missed the banje had been turned over to Hotel on August 19. She knew witness but he evidence was accused and also knew Prevost, taken from him. Accused often came to her room. She had seen accused in Pre- Accused took the stand and vost's room at the King George said that he had been drunk for a banjo but she had declined to do came from Vancouver. He adtrouble. She identified the banjo, fore. The last theft charge had In answer to a question by ac- been preferred against him in cused, witness said that he (ac- 1910 and since that time he had) cused) had acted like he was been involved in drug cases. He Pawned Banjo asino Cafe and residing at the W. E. Fisher, in addressing the McMordie Apartments, testified jury, was brief as was also Mr. that accused had come to his Justice Macdonald in an imparplace on the Sunday evening in tial review of the evidence. question and had offered the A verdict of guilty was rebanjo as security for a loan of turned. stated that accused was sober, of October, A.D. 1923, I was appointed

By Strawberry Flats and the Silver Daisy

-- The Summit 4-Defiance Camp

The little village of Hope, situated on the Fraser River | shoulder of a cliff which towers above and drops away about one hundred miles from the coast, is the a sheer one thousand feet to the bed of the river below starting point for all mountaineers wishing to reach the Then the trail once more drops down to the next interior of British Columbia by the trail route. It is a feeding grounds at Cayuse Flats which has a sister spot scattered village of about two hundred inhabitants but three miles farther on Cedar Flats. Beyond Cedar possessing both an abundance of natural beauty and Flats lies a long strip of heavy cedar timber, a true a truly romantic past. The village is flanked on one side "forest primeval." Strawberry Flats, a pleasant open by the noble Fraser river, while from the other side one field on the Skagit river at a height of 3700 feet is the last looks up three wide draws in the mountain ranges, stopping place before the actual ascent to the summit The one to the left is the beautiful Coquinalla valley begins. Here, in spite of the high altitude, wild strawthrough which the turbulent Coquihalla river cascades berries grow in abundance. from a pass unmatched for rugged grandeur. Through In the next 2300 feet (of the perpendicular of course) this pass too, under innumerable snow sheds and one is led to the summit by a series of switchbacks zigtunnels the Kettle Valley Railway goes to Princeton zagging up the face of the mountain. The river, which at and the interior. In the centre is an opening for the the foot appeared a torrent, is here a tiny stream. Nicolum river, to the right is the Silver Creek draw a mere trickle over the stones. Below, the ever-lasting and beyond it the snow-capped peaks of the Cascade hills unroll themselves for a hundred miles of valley and

The mountain trail over the Hope Pass is the old one | When the summit itself is attained a sight never to be known as the Dewdney which was surveyed and partly forgotten appears. A wide open meadow lies in an built for twenty-five miles out of Hope, by English inverted crown on the mountain top. Around its edge Sappers in 1861. It winds up the Coquihalla River for rise whitish cliffs scarcely distinguishable from the many a short distance, then branches off with the Nicolum, a snow banks. And everywhere, even beside the snow. tributary of the former river. The way lies through grows a bewildering variety of wild flowers. Sylvan glades, past rushing waterfalls and over rustic In the centre of the depression lie two lakes, the bridges, the old dry "cribbing" of which is as firm as the dividing of the waters, for from the one goes the Skagit day when it was laid.

The first feeding ground for horses is at 12 Mile Lake | Saw Creek towards the interior lakes. -otherwise known as Divide Lake at an altitude of As soon as the descent of the eastern slope is begun 2300 feet. This lake is the head waters of the Nicolum a great change is noticeable. The grade is easy and river. Here there is a beautiful hay meadow owned by a steady, the country becomes more open and is clear of trapper and prospector who is patiently awaiting the the under-brush and ferns so characteristic of the western day when the transprovincial road will give him a means of transporting his wealth, in the shape of hay, to outside | The last camp is twenty miles from Princeton but the more wonderful, if that were possible, but at the same and its two rivers, the Similkameen and Tulameen time more wild and rugged. The Pass, a narrow hallway keeping guard over it. Beyond it, rises a splendid vista bounded by cliffs thousands of feet high, is a sight of of rolling green foothills with more fugged mountains never-ending marvel. At one spot, known as Skagit closer in, indicative of the districts most flourishing bluffs, the trail (a bare 18 inches wide) winds around the industries, ranching and mining.

Here there is a large cabin situated in the forest's heart provincial-highway from Princeton to Hope. on the very banks of the Skagit river. The owner of it carries on prospecting and mining operations in the interesting spot where stratified rocks yielding excellent vicinity. He appropriately calls his cabin "Defiance fossils remains are located on the side of the hill Camp" and his mine "The Silver Daisy."

river towards the sea and from the other flows the Whip

last nine miles of that distance are covered by a good At 22 Mile there is another beautiful camping spot. motor road, the beginning of the proposed Trans-About eight miles from Princeton is a wanderfu

Shortly after this the valley opens out before one-From here on for many miles the scenery becomes Princeton snuggled peacefully into a friendly circle of hills next seen the banjo in the city ald told of arresting accused after the chief of police by Trinder. Hester Ryan, Indian, said she Harry Seaton, taxi driver, was was living at the King George called to the stand as a crown the had served five years in jail and could not say how many times James Trinder, chef of the he had been sentenced for theft.

Five Years in Jail

IN PROBATE.

Mercer, Deceased: Intestate, TAKE NOTICE that in Order of His Honour F. McB. Young, made the A6th day required to furnish same, properly verified to me, on or before the 18th day November, A.D. 1923, and all parties i debted to the Estate are required to pay the amount of their indebtedness to me

THOMAS W. HERNE. Official Administrator Prince Rupert, B.C. Dated this 18th day of October, 1923.

IN PROBATE. IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA. In the Matter of The Administration Act:

In the Matter of the Estate of James Langille, Deceased: Intestate.

TAKE NOTICE that in Order of His lonour F. McB. Young, made the 16th day of October, A.D. 1923, I was appointed Administrator of the Estate of James Langille, deceased, and all parties having

THOMAS W. HERNE, Official Administrator

-prescription-

will be dispensed with carefulness, accuracy and cleanliness by a registered pharmacist, using only the best ingre-

If you wish to obtain the greatest benefit from your doctor's prescription, have it filled by

ORMES LTD.

DISPENSING CHEMISTS.

Rexall Store: Cor. Third Ave. and Sixth. Phones 82 and 200

DOMINION

Victory, War Loan and Renewal Loan Bonds. Any Amount Bought, Sold, Quoted at Market,

PROVINCIAL

35,000 Ontario 5% 1948 @ 98. Yield 5.14%. 45,000 British Columbia 41/2% 1842 @ 90%. Yield

MUNICIPAL

20,000 Prince Rupert 6% 1934 to 1950 @ 100,43 101.34. Yield 5.90%.

20,000 Vernon 51/2% 1938 @ 99. Yield 5.60%. 5,000 Duncans 6% 1953 @ 104.29. Yield 5.70%.

· Prices for Prince Rupert delivery and interest accrued.

Correspondence Solicited. Gillespie, Hart & Todd, Ltd

Phone 2140. VICTORIA, B.C. 711 Fort St.

Advertise in "The Daily News" THE PAPER THAT GETS QUICK RESULTS