Gossard Corsets

TO LOOK MORE YOUTHFUL.

The modern corset doesn't aim to make us all over, so we look all alike, as the old-fashioned corset did.

It doesn't aim to give us that objectionable corseted look.

It just coaxes, restrains, redistributes us a little—makes us longer waisted, taller and a bit more slender. It gives us that graceful ease of movement which can only come with genuine comfort.

MILD CURED SALMON BALMORAL CANNERY

Shipment Arrives by Princess Beatrice Consigned to East Over C.N.R.

The C.P.R. steamer Princess Beatrice, Capt. Cliffe, arriving from Vancouver and way ports at 8.15 Saturday evening, tied up at No. 3 G.T.P. wharf instead of at the government wharf, her regular mooring place. This was because the Beatrice had on board two carloads of mild cured salmon from Balmoral Cannery Skeena River, which was discharged here for trans-shipment East over the Canadian National Railway. The steamer also had a number of passengers for here. She sailed for the south at 9.30.

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

July 9, 1913.

Within a week trains will be running on the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway from Prince Rupert to Smithers, the first divisional point east.

W. E. Henderson, Commissioner for the Provincial government, is here to take evidence from the general public and the coal merchants as to the cost of coal in the city.

Albert Davidson will succeed A. E. McMaster as general agent for the G.T.P. Railway at Prince Rupert, it is announced.

The Man in the Moon
SAYS:—

IT will be somewhat of a national disaster if these sort of seasons continue at Prince Rupert. People in the south will have nothing to compare themselves with.

ONE thing that brings fame to the city of Prince Rupert is the legendary lore that is sent out from the Arctic Studio.

SINCE ladies' ears have begun to show themselves they are advertising the fact to the world by hanging long ear ornaments in them.

THEY are usually known as ornaments but Jake tells a different tale. He has a lot of unprintable adjectives to explain exactly how they appear to him.

THE newspaper headlines have failed to record a most unusual occurrence. The Board of Trade is out of debt.

PEOPLE who say there is nothing to psychology should be asked how they would feel if the boss called them out at three or four o'clock in the morning to work as hard as they do when they go on a fishing trip.

JAKE said: "Can the bunkerosities." No, I do not know what a bunkerosity is.

ENGAGED couples should be candid with each other, but not too candid.

LOUD socks are used by people whose feet are in the habit of going to sleep.

I SUGGEST that the chamber of commerce or the lightweight members of the city council (if there are any) use a little of their surplus energy in having a notice board erected at the dock containing advice to visitors. It might contain some answers to questions in order to save citizens the trouble of answering them. I suggest the following: "Yes, this is Canada; It is also Prince Rupert; It is the end of the Canadian National Railways; Yes, the national railways are supposed to be owned by the nation; No, this is not a hick town; Yes, the people mostly speak English; No, it is not cold in winter; Yes, when we take a drive we do it on the water; Yes, we sometimes catch fish but mostly we say we do; Like it? Yes, sometimes, except when tourists come and ask questions."

PEOPLE from the prairies are gradually beginning to learn that there is a place on the coast called Prince Rupert and that it has prospects. We also are learning about the prospects.

The Secret of Its Success

It is still doing this all over the world

Sport Chat

Sport program for the week follows:

Monday (tonight)—Stuart Shield Senior Football, Grotto vs. Sons of Canada.
Tuesday—Intermediate Baseball, Colts vs. High School.
Wednesday—Trap shooting at Park Avenue.
Thursday—Gilhuly Cup Senior Football, Sons of Canada vs. Grotto.
Friday—Senior Baseball, Sons of Canada vs. Gil's.

The Grotto football team, winner this year of the Mobley Cup and City Championship, and the Sons of Canada, winners of the Dominion Day Cup, meet tonight at Acropolis Hill Grounds in the first game of the Stuart Shield series. Both teams, being holders of silverware already, will enter the lists keen on getting the first advantage for the second trophy and the interest of the fans is also keen, so something good in the soccer line may be expected, especially since the teams have already proven themselves to be very evenly balanced with nothing much between them to choose. Fans are also reminded again of the good cause in which the series is staged, namely that of creating a fund for the protection of injured players.

As many of the players have left or are about to leave the city for summer homes and holidays, the schedule of the Junior Baseball League, which has been staging interesting games at McBride Street for the past few weeks, is to be suspended for the holidays. When school starts again in September and the boys return to town, the series will be resumed it is expected.
