Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

and see how quickly your cold will disappear.

Mrs. A. Coghan, Magnolia, Alta., writes: "Last winter we all had bad colds in our family, and I didn't know what to do. Some friends told me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I went and got a couple of bottles, and in a short while our colds were all gone. Now we always keep a bottle on hand in case one of us might catch a cold."

"Dr. Wood's" is 35c and 60c a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FORD WILL SPEND TEN MILLIONS ON NEW PLANT

MINNEAPOLIS, Mar. 16.—It is expected that the water power commission will grant Ford water rights early in March and construction on the proposed new plant will begin April 1. Although the plant is to be in the corporate limits of St. Paul, it is only five hundred feet across the Mississippi river from Minneapolis. Bridges are to be constructed, and it is believed Minneapolis will benefit as much as St. Paul from the erection of an industry announced by the St. Paul Association as involving construction and equipment expense of $10,000,000, employment for 14,000 men, and an annual $25,000,000 payroll.

All The Family Had Bad Colds

"Did you ever notice that if one of the family contracts a cold it generally runs to all the other members?"

Many people when they contract a cold do not pay any attention to it, thinking perhaps it will pass away of itself in a day or two. This is a great mistake for before they know it, it has become settled on the lungs.

Never neglect the first symptoms; get a bottle of

and see how quickly your cold will disappear.

TELLS OF STORY OF THE NATION'S SOUL

Sir Campbell Stuart Reads Paper on Canada at Colonial Institute

Sir Campbell Stuart, in a paper on Canada and the Empire before the Royal Colonial Institute, dwell on the importance of a new country, of its history and records, says the London Times. He suggested that we lack a knowledge of Canada as a whole, and that Canada can guard against the destructive tendency to sectionalism only by the positive constructive idea of the nation.

The history of Canada, he said, is bound up with the history of England and with the history of France. There are hundreds of families in England and in France whose predecessors or connections served in some capacity in Canada. And doubtless they have records that would help to fill out and complete the story of that richly endowed country. No more patriotic service could be rendered to the Empire than the placing of such records at the service of the Canadian government for transcription. At Ottawa today stands a small modest building. It is the Department of Archives, and in it reposes the story of the nation's soul. Here you see the maps of the early pioneers, here tattered flags that tell the tale of other days and other wars, here the priceless documents which in themselves are the birthright of our people. And in a long room are the trophies of more modern days—the grim reminders of those battlefields in Flanders and in France where the young Canada of today fought for the old Empire which she loves so well. It is to this store of treasures which we hope to add from time to time scraps of evidence which will help to fill in the pages which are missing from our nation's history.

SOCIAL EXPERIMENT PROVES A FAILURE

Building Guild in England Comes to Grief; Pays Ten Shillings in Pound

LIVERPOOL, March 15.—The first considerable attempt made under Guild Socialist inspiration to secure "workers' control" in industry, came to grief—for the time being at any rate—when the Building Guild appeared before a county court judge and obtained his sanction to an arrangement by which its creditors are to get ten shillings in the pound. In some three years the Guild had undertaken contracts of over two millions in value, and its outstanding contracts are now to be carried out with the assistance and under the control of a successful Glasgow contractor, who comes on the scene not without sympathy for the Guild ideal, but with the intention of furnishing "the expert guidance which is necessary to enable such an ideal to become a reality." With no floating capital and unable, therefore, to meet its day-to-day obligations, the Guild had "bittered more than it could chew," and even to compound with the creditors at ten shillings in the pound the first thing its new Godfather had to do was to put down a sum of £50,000. In return he assumed complete control of the Guild's affairs for at least three years, and his nominees, who are to supply the Guild with the necessary directive ability, are to be paid for their work in proportion to the Guild's income.

MILLION DOLLARS FURS IN ONE YEAR

FORT WILLIAM, Ont., March 15.—Trapping and killing of fur bearing animals has become a prosperous industry in this district and last year the total value of pelts sold was $1,029,750. This total includes the bounty received by local trappers on 14,600 timber and brush wolves. The season's catch was: Mink, 7,000; black bear, 4,000; marten, 2,000; skunk, 2,000; beaver, 3,000; fisher, 1,000; weasel, 25,000; lynx, 1,000; otter, 1,000; silver fox, 100; cross fox, 250; red fox, 1,000; rats, 12,000; brush wolves, 11,250; timber wolves, 3,350. A bounty of $40 per pelt is paid for timber wolves and $20 for brush wolves.

SERIOUS DISEASES SPRING FROM COLDS

Prompt Attention Necessary to Avoid Lung Trouble

Just as "fall" oaks from little acorns grow," so is a common cold often the seed from which spring serious diseases, such as pleurisy, pneumonia and other lung troubles. Taken at its start, a cold yields to proper treatment. Neglect it and it not only causes serious inconvenience, but is very liable to develop into diseases which are rightly dreaded by all.

That cold can be relieved in a single night by starting to take Grip-Fix as soon as the trouble appears.

This remedy strikes right at the root of the complaint. It keeps the system open. It relieves the muscular pains. It relieves the feverish conditions. It comes in capsule form and acts promptly. Two capsules taken three hours apart give wonderful results, and one capsule at two-hour intervals thereafter finishes the work.

Have a box of Grip-Fix in the house. Never be without it these days. On sale at Ormes Drug Store Ltd., 35c per box.
