New Chef Arrives

We have secured the services of an up-to-the-minute chef, one who has established a enviable reputation built upon years of experience. Our new chef has cooked for the Vancouver Hotel, Golden Gate Cafe, Trocadero, and Central in our sister city, and now he will cook for YOU. He is right on the job now. It was only after a personal interview with our Mr. James in Vancouver that the new chef could be induced to come north.

Your Standard of Restaurant Service

Our restaurant is becoming more and more a meeting place for man, woman and child. Here are combined every comfort desired, with a cuisine par excellence. Under ideal conditions, with surroundings marked by subdued elegance, all who come will find the service to their liking.

"We aim to give our patrons the finest restaurant service in Northern B.C."

BURNS LAKE AND LAKES DISTRICT

Knute Nysven, Pete Olson and A. Anderson, of Francois Lake have undertaken a tie contract at Rose Lake.

B. A. Smith's turkey shoot at Burns Lake drew a considerable crowd on Saturday. Olaf Hultkrantz, of Decker Lake, captured four of the birds and with one shot Billy Leverett won a turkey. Many of the local citizens are assured of a real thanksgiving turkey, and the song of the gobblers is to be heard from many of the back lots in town.

A most enjoyable dance attended by a large crowd was given at Southbank, Francois Lake, to honor Dr. Mayil M. Williams, upon the occasion of her farewell to this district. For the past year Dr. Williams has been the medical practitioner at the Francois Lake Hospital and she has made a large circle of friends in the district who regret she is leaving.

Dr. M. F. Lucas arrived here last week and is settling at Southbank, Francois Lake.

Mrs. Lougheed, of Danskin, had the misfortune to break her arm last week and is receiving medical treatment at the Francois Lake Hospital.

Alex. A. Connon left Burns Lake for Hazelton on Saturday morning. Mrs. Connon is at present visiting her mother, Mrs. Henkel, at Francois Lake, but will follow her husband in about two weeks to their new home in Hazelton.

Fred Hagen and H. J. Maedonald are outfitting in Burns Lake preparatory to leaving for Silver Island, Babine Lake, where they will continue work on their mineral claims.

In the spring they intend to go on to Idaho. The trip is being made by road to the boundary line and Mr. Driskill expects to patronize the railway for the balance of the journey.

H. G. Shinn of Uchea Valley is spending the week end at Burns Lake.

The Decker Lake Community Hall committee gave a free dance to a large number of dancing fans on Saturday night at which the usual good time was spent.

J. P. Wheeler, of the Soldiers' Settlement Board, Telkwa, was a business visitor on Sunday and Monday.

Dr. Lang was called to the Babine to attend to Mrs. J. Wiggins who was taken ill on Friday. He had her removed to the Francois Lake hospital where she is receiving medical attention.

There was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Nicholl, of Techesinkut Lake on Friday, a son.

PRINCE GEORGE

Miss Judith Laura Wilson and Leslie de Llos Guile were married in St. Michael's Church last Wednesday morning, Rev. S. Polinger officiating. They will reside in the city after spending their honeymoon at West Lake.

R. D. Featherstonhaugh of Vancouver passed through the city last week on his way out from Peace River district where he made an examination of the Mount Selwyn property under development by a company in St. Thomas, Ont. Mr. Featherstonhaugh also did some prospecting and found a quantity of platinum.
