Dominion and Provincial Governments Disagree on Workless Relief Matter

VICTORIA, Dec. 15: (Canadian Press)-Definite assurance that the Dominion government would share to an extent of one-third in municipalities' costs of direct relief and that he was ignorant of a blanket schedule brought into force by the provincial government was contained in a wire received from Hon. W. A. Gordon, minister of labor, to Mayor David Leeming of Victoria.

Mayor Leeming stated that the message was in answer to one which he had sent after the provincial government had been insistent that government aid would be forthcoming only on the basis of the new provincial schedule.
