ROY KNOCKS OUT CRAGGS

Exciting Main Event in Boxing Tournament Last Night Came Up to All Expectations

SNAPPY PRELIMINARIES

Alex. Roy knocked Eddie Craggs out in the fifth round of their scheduled six-round decision bout in the Empress Theatre last night.

Hard Hitting

Roy appeared to be in better form than Craggs. He forced the fight a good part of the time although more than once Craggs came after him and caused him to cover up temporarily.

Craggs lived up in the second and Roy showed the effects of a too energetic pace in the first round.

The third round was more even with more clinching than actual boxing. With an easier pace, Roy came to and was again carrying the fight at close range to his opponent.

Craggs Gets Groggy

A series of at least three hard right swings were landed by Roy in the fourth round until Craggs, near the end, seemed to grow groggy.

Following up his advantage of

GASSED OVERSEAS SHELL SHOCKED and RHEUMATISM

Mr. F. M. Blaquiere, Montville, Alta., writes: "After three years service overseas I returned to Canada almost a complete wreck. I had been gassed, and was suffering from shell shock and rheumatism, and was so nervous I could not sleep at night."

the fourth, Roy administered his stinging rights. Craggs went to the canvas three times, and staggered to his feet only to go down again in quick succession.

George Russell refereed the main bout and worked almost as hard as the principals breaking up their repeated clinches.

Snappy Preliminaries

Four snappy preliminaries led up to the main bout. Spiro Gurvich and Johnny Martin boxed three two-minute rounds to a draw decision by Alex. Roy.

Harrison & Gamble, agents for the Port Edward townsite, are running a special train to Port Edward today to allow prospective investors to look over the new townsite there.
