MARCH OF WORKLESS

Demonstration This Afternoon Was Quite Orderly—City Hall and Court House Visited

Carrying banners which expressed demands for more adequate unemployment relief and for the release of persons in Canada who are claimed to have been imprisoned for their activities on behalf of the workless, unemployed of Prince Rupert, over two hundred strong, staged a street demonstration here this afternoon. It took the form of a street parade in the course of which the City Hall and the Court House were visited, spokesmen for the men presenting their demands to officials at both places. Mayor C. H. Orme assured the delegation of all possible assistance. Government Agent Norman A. Watt was out of town.

The parade was an orderly one and took place in a pouring rain down Third Avenue which had an icy surface following recent frosts. Leaders of the parade and spokesmen were Messrs. Chapman, Murphy, White and Scully.
