MANY TAXATION APPEALS MADE

Court of Revision This Year to Have Good Deal of Business—51 Protests Entered

The municipal court of revision is going to have a good deal more business to attend to this year than last, according to the number of appeals that have already been entered and which are posted today in the City Hall. This year there are a total of 51 appeals as against 30 last year. Some of these are of a blanket nature and include groups of lots. For instance, the G.T.P. Development Co. is appealing the assessment of all its lots in Sections 3, 4 and 9 on the grounds that they are over valued. The majority of the appeals are on account of alleged over-valuation and inequity while several water-front owners and lessees are appealing on the ground that the city has no power to assess them. Assessor J. C. McLennan and the court of revision will open sessions at 10 o'clock on February 8.

Appeals have been entered by the following:
Section 1—McCaffery & Gibbons, W. E. Williams, A. M. Manson, R. E. McGilvray, Wadia and Adele Jabour, James Hampton, Annibale Bianco, W. J. Alder, Flora Colhart, Miss Kathleen Agnew, A. Christiano, J. R. Morgan, Ltd., Ed. Finlayson, A. and L. Brookbank, Harriet McWilliams, F. W. Hart, Terminal Investment Syndicate, E. C. Gibbons and Ada G. Melne.

Section 2—J. S. Wallace, Helge Smith, Lottie Brookbank.

THEY CALLED HIM AN "OLD PILL"

THAT was years ago when he packed a terrible grouch, a mighty irritable stomach and a liver that refused to do the things that all good livers should. No wonder his friends called him an "old pill" and stayed away.

But that was years ago—long before he discovered Beecham's Pills and learned that two at bedtime can bring sunshine into a man's life. Today, he's an optimist, a hero to his wife, and a staunch believer in Beecham's Pills.

The cheer that Beecham's Pills bring into a man's disposition, is the incomparable cheer of sound digestion, active liver, and the regular habits that make good health.

REAL SPORTSWOMAN

Miss Dalton Versatile in "The Woman Who Walked Alone"

Dorothy Dalton is a true sportswoman.

Without mentioning past performances, Miss Dalton earns this title by the versatility displayed by her in "The Woman Who Walked Alone," in which she comes to the Westholme Theatre tonight.

In this feature, she proves her prowess by riding to hounds, shooting and taking part in the favorite outdoor sports of Merrie England. Also, she had to dance a fandango under most dramatic circumstances, try her luck at the roulette tables, and finally run a tavern on the African veldt, where the tangled threads of her destiny and another's are brought together in a surprising culmination.

Milton Sills and Wanda Hawley appear in her support, with a large and excellent cast.

VANDERHOOF

Vanderhoof Scotsmen held a concert and dance last Thursday evening and the affair was of truly Caledonian nature even to the write-up given it in the Vanderhoof Chronicle.
