PREPARING FOR ELKS' FLAG DAY

August 9 Will be Given Over to Youngsters and Great Program is Arranged

The Children's Flag Day, to be staged by the Elks on Thursday, August 9, promises to be one of the gala events of the season. The day will be completely given over to the children who will participate in all the fun of the fair absolutely free of charge. Refreshments are to be provided on the Acropolis Hill grounds and there will be a plentiful supply of ice cream and peanuts on hand.

The day will commence with a children's parade at 1 p.m. headed by the Elks' minstrel orchestra in which the renowned clowns will appear from the Elks' Home, Third Avenue, to the Acropolis Hill grounds. Upon arrival at the grounds an address will be given by Dr. H. R. Grant to the children on "The Flag of the Empire," and the Union Jack will be hoisted and the salute performed.

The committee in charge have prepared one of the finest programs of races and sports ever staged in the city. At the conclusion of the races baseball and football games will take place in the afternoon for the juniors. An endeavor is being made by the Elks' committee to pull off a tug-of-war which will take place in the afternoon between the football and baseball games. In the evening a senior baseball game has been arranged to take place between the Sons of Canada and Gil's. An effort is being made to considerably strengthen the Gil aggregation in order that they can turn the tables on the Sons of Canada.

After the baseball game a masquerade ball for the children will be given in the Elks' Home at which all children in costume will be admitted free. Valuable prizes will be given to the best dressed couple, the best comic couple, and the best dancing couple. At 10 p.m. the floor will be given over to the adults. Special music has been arranged for the evening which will be furnished by the Elks' augmented orchestra and delicious refreshments will be provided.

SONS OF CANADA CINCHED SHIELD

Defeated Gil's in Senior League Baseball Game by 13 to 5

The Sons of Canada baseball team trimmed Gil's last night in the league fixture played on the Acropolis Hill grounds by a score of 13 runs to 5, thereby cinching the capture of the Nickerson shield.

The game throughout was very loose in play and the tobacconists seemed to be suffering from the heat or some other summer malady. The Sons of Canada team was by far the snappiest in its play and it was evident early in the game that they were sure winners of the chield.

The Sons sprung a surprise on the fans when they put P. Laporte behind the batter, the veteran baseballer putting up a splendid game. Harry Astoria, in the box for the Sons put up a fine brand of pitching. Howard Frizzell did the pitching honors for Gil's with J. W. Hamilton catching. Art Easson relieved Frizzell in the box in the seventh innings. Alex. Mitchell knocked a home run for the Sons in the fifth innings and Roy Gilmour would have duplicated the performance but for the fact that he slipped when rounding third base and was forced to stay there.

The teams took the field as follows:

Sons of Canada—P. Laporte, c; H. Astoria, p; V. Menzies, 1b; A. Mitchell, 2b; J. Farquhar, ss; Roy Gilmour 3b; E. Clapp, lf; R. Walls, cf; A. Roy, rf.

Gil's—H. Frizzell, p; J. W. Hamilton, c; T. Clark, 1b; W. Lambie, 2b; G. Mitchell, ss; Art Easson, 3b; Geo. Shaw, lf; W. Mitchell, cf; W. Montgomery, rf.

Dick Greenwell acted as umpire.

The game by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Gils	0	0	0	2	0	1	2	5
S. O. C.	4	0	0	1	6	2	0	13

GOOD BASEBALL GAME AT ANYOX

Mine Beat Elks by Score of 5 to 1 in Match This Week

ANYOX, Aug. 3.—With the exception of one inning, when the Elks let the Mine tally five runs, the last game in the Anyox Baseball League was the best exhibition of baseball Anyox fans have witnessed for some time. Where there were a few errors made by either side there was also some sensational playing on the part of individual players which more than compensated for the bad plays and would have been worth while in any company. Olsen, at first for the Mine, played his best game so far this season and was undoubtedly in good ball shape. Besides errorless ball on the bag, he accepted two hard chances, one of a foul off Dodd's bat after a hard run, and the other of a hard catch behind first, which took some sprinting to acquire. Cy. Greenwell, who covers short and a whole lot more ground for the Elks, after having an almost excusable error chalked up against him, handled a hard one behind second, which looked like a safe hit for Olsen. His annexing of Halverson's fly behind the same base was also a very pretty piece of ball playing.

Both pitchers were in good shape. Draudson, for the Elks getting seven strike-outs, while J. Ferguson, for the Mine, got five for his side. Ferguson, however, allowed fewer hits and was the tighter of the pitchers. He allowed the Elks four hits only and Draudson gave the "Muckers" seven. In hitting, Cy. Greenwell and Robertson each got singles and McIntyre got a pair of them. For the Mine, G. Greenwell, Corkle and Mealey got credit for singles; C. Ferguson getting a brace of the same kind, while J. Ferguson and Olsen each got two-baggers. Bases on balls, off Draudson, three; off Ferguson, three. Runs were secured in two innings only, the Elks counting in the first frame, the Mine getting their total in the third.

Batteries — Mine, J. Ferguson and Greenwell; Elks, Draudson and Cody.

Umpire — W. Olson; bases, Sinclair.

Line-ups:

Mine—Mealey, ss; Greenwell, c; C. Ferguson, rf; Anderson, lf, J. Ferguson, p; Olsen, 1b; Corkle, 2b; Stewart, cf; Halverson, 3b.

Elks—Cody, c; McIntyre, 3b; Robertson, lf; Greenwell, ss; Draudson, p; Thorley, 1b; Dodd, cf; Whifteker, 2b; Waterman, rf.

The Gilhuly Cup football tonight between the Grotto and Sons of Canada should prove attractive to all city soccer fans. Having won their first and only game of the series from the Sons of Canada a fortnight ago, the Englishmen now have a lead of one point in the standing over the Grotto who tied with the Canuks last week. Therefore, whichever team wins tonight will go to first place. G. S. Russell will referee.

The Sons of England players will be chosen from the following: Frizzell, Lambe, Lord, Craggs, Kelsey, Hodgkinson, Farquhar, Johnson, Mackintosh, Tinker, Hamilton, Hodgson and Cameron.

Under the supervision of A. D. "Cow Boy" Kean, there will be staged at the Vancouver Exhibition opening a week from tomorrow a "Range Days" feature, a replica in many particulars of the Pendleton "Round Up" and the Calgary "stampede." All the "Range Days" competitions are confined to entries from British Columbia cow boys. They will include rough riding, bare back riding, wild horse riding, relay racing, steer roping, calf roping, packing contests, stage coach races and wild cow milking.

By winning the referee's decision over Harold Blanton in the main event of a recent smoker at Ketchikan, Red Campbell earned the right to meet Joe Manila in a bout for the Alaska championship. The referee's decision, although unpopular with a few of the fans at the time it was awarded, was in all respects a just one, as Campbell was the aggressor throughout and was successful in delivering the more effective blows. The only thing that prevented a knockout was the fact that both men seemed to be out of condition, each being too tired after the fourth round to direct their blows with any degree of accuracy.
