TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL MEETING

Celebration, Plans and Resolutions for Dominion Congress Discussed Last Night

A meeting of the Trades and Labor Council was held last night in the Carpenter's Hall, S. D. Macdonald, president of the council in the chair. The business included the making of further plans for the Labor Day celebration to be held on Monday, September 3, particulars of which will be published later.

A number of resolutions for the Dominion Congress came up for discussion which were laid over until the next meeting of the council for final action. The resolutions discussed dealt with the nationalization of railroads, the closed town question, the making a knowledge of conversational English compulsory in all industrial institutions where machinery was in use, the Oriental question and the fair wage clause

FISH ARRIVALS

Ten Boats Marketed 98,500 Pounds at Exchange This Morning

Halibut landings were heavier this morning a total of 98,500 pounds being sold at the Fish Exchange. Four American schooners had 56,500 pounds and six Canadians, 42,000 pounds. IS TRYING TO GET TITLE TO CLAIMS

Louis Watkins Sues Premier Extension Gold Mining Co. in Supreme Court, Vancouver

Louis Watkins of Stewart is suing the Premier Extension Gold Mining Co. in the Supreme Court at Vancouver in an attempt to establish title to nine mineral claims at Stewart adjoining the Premier. Watkins' claim is that the company and its predecessors failed to complete title by staking the claims in the snow instead of imbedding the stakes in the mineral soil. The case has been adjourned for three weeks.

SKEENA RIVER BOATS AVERAGE 240 SALMON

Fishing is Improving and From Standpoint of Individual Fishermen is Better Than Last Year

Salmon fishing on the Skeena River continues to improve and the average per boat this week is slightly better than it was at this time last year, the Dominion Fisheries Office reports. This week the general average is 120 sockeyes and a similar number of humpbacks per boat.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR PRESIDENT ON PRINCESS LOUISE

A memorial service for the late President Harding is to be held on the steamer Princess Louise this afternoon as she proceeds north to Alaska bearing a large number of tourists, most of whom are United States citizens. The speakers will be Dr. S. G. Kennedy, Tulsa, Oklahoma; R. J. Babbage, New York City; and J. A. Murchison, Vancouver. In charge of the service is Rev. John F. Faris, editor of the Presbyterian Board publications, Philadelphia, who is among the tourists.

News of the president's death was received by wireless on the Princess Louise last night at 10 o'clock and the nightly dance which was in progress was at once discontinued.

JOHN JOHNSON IS BEING EXAMINED REGARDING SANITY

Left Railway and Went on Raft for 25 Miles to Stephens Island Where he Stayed For Week Without Food

John Johnson, section man, who crossed 25 miles from the railway near the mouth of Skeena River in a raft to Stephens Island and remained there a week without food, was brought to the city yesterday by Provincial Constable Martin in the launch "Dixie Rupert" and has been lodged in the city police station where he will be examined as to his sanity. Johnson was discovered on the island early this week by Capt. Lear of the N. & S. and food was left for him pending notice being given to the police.
