Twenty Years Ago

In Prince Rupert

December 17, 1912

The roof and second floor of the Grand Trunk Pacific Inn were completely destroyed by fire which broke out about 7 o'clock in the morning. Most of the guests were in the act of rising at the time and practically none of them lost their effects. While fighting the fire, Fireman J. L. McIntosh suffered a painful injury when he fell from the second storey to the ground below. The cause of the outbreak is unknown.

In order to help the Prince Rupert General Hospital out of its present financial difficulties, the Union Bank of Canada has offered to lend the board $10,000. In order to raise funds, a drive for the sale of membership tickets is to be instituted.

Francois G. DeMussy of Edmonton has purchased the southeast double corner of Ninth Avenue and McBride Street for $10,000. The vendors were Messrs. Demray and Petersen and the agent was John Dybhavn.
