Former Attorney General Spoke Scathingly of Inability of Greenfield Cabinet

LACOMBE, Dec. 7.—Hon. J. R. Boyle, former attorney general of the province, and for the last two years leader of the Liberal group in the Legislative Assembly spoke here to a rousing meeting of citizens and in scathing terms denounced the Greenfield government for its weakness and its utter failure to carry out its promises to the country.

The attempt of the government last session to avoid all responsibility for wrecking the direct legislation act and the submission of a preferential plebiscite on the liquor question was attacked by Mr. Boyle in no uncertain language.

Cost to Province

"The plebiscite cost the people of the province at least a quarter of a million dollars," Mr. Boyle pointed out. "Clause D was carried by a large majority and now the government are trying to find someone who knows what "D" means and have hired a couple of lawyers to try and work it out. It would be amusing if it were not so serious for the country. Any government without brains or courage enough to draft a few simple questions to the electors so that they themselves would be able to understand the answer when given, should go to the Lieutenant Governor and hand in their resignation. Every citizen should organize with his neighbor to be in readiness at the first opportunity to again restore responsible government in this province."

Government Deficits

"The first budget presented to the house by Premier Greenfield showed a deficit of about $2,000,000. They claimed that the Liberal government retired in July, 1921, was responsible for it. That is a matter of dispute but we could not, in fairness, be held responsible for more than half of it. In fact the deficit was largely due to the general belief that the new government would reduce taxation and be lenient on those in arrears and therefore taxes were not paid. One would have thought that a $2,000,000 deficit staring a government in the face would have caused it to stop, look and listen; but not the Greenfield government. They thought that all they had to do was to increase taxation. It never occurred to them to reduce expenditures.

ECONOMIC NEEDS OF DOMINION OF CANADA

At the Board of Trade meeting last night a booklet was referred to the legislative committee entitled "Some Economic Needs of the Dominion of Canada." It came from the Associated Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce of Ontario. Among the things advocated by the writer are the balancing of budgets and the abolition of deficits; rational taxation; standardization of accounting; price control; establishment of departments of municipal affairs in all provinces; reorganization and cutting down of staffs.

The committee is supposed to report on the booklet.

WIN BACK GIRLHOOD, HEALTH AND BEAUTY!

Medical science can be of great value to the woman who feels she has lost the charm and spirit of youth and seeks to regain it—the woman who is easily fatigued, easily upset, nervous, dyspeptic—who finds dark circles under her eyes, her complexion sallow, her eyes dull instead of sparkling and the girlish lines of her figure slipping away.

Simply take a good vegetable tonic! That prescribed by Dr. H. S. Thacher, the celebrated Physician, is being used by innumerable well known women. It is scientifically designed to help correct constipation (one cause) and it does it without griping; also to improve digestion, to nourish and tone up the system, soothe those tired, overtaxed nerves; put on solid, firm flesh and send purer, healthier blood flooding through rosy cheeks.

Try it yourself! Just a spoonful after the next few meals. Notice the quick difference in the way you eat, sleep, look and feel. If you are not completely satisfied your druggist is authorized to return your money.

WAS CRAZY TO LEAVE MONEY TO CHAUFFEUR

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The will of Dr. Charles M. Freeman of Metuchen, N.J., by which he sought to leave the bulk of a $225,000 estate to his chauffeur, Harry B. Mohring, and only $1 to his wife, Mary E. Wilkins Freeman, the novelist, has been set aside in a decision by Judge John P. Kirkpatrick of the Middlesex County Orphans Court, New Brunswick.

The Court refused to support allegations of fraud and undue influence on Dr. Freeman, but held that he was mentally incapable of making a will. The evidence showed that Dr. Freeman was a heavy drinker and that he had spent a term in the State Hospital for the Insane at Trenton.

Envoy and Mrs. McKay of Kitselas returned after visiting Hazelton and they expect a visit from Staff Captain Carruthers, the new Salvation Army divisional officer for the Skeena river and coast, tomorrow.

Sport Chat

A sports club for the winter months was enthusiastically formed at a largely public meeting in Stewart last week. Officers were elected as follows: President, J. W. Wilson; vice-president, Henry Rochefort; secretary, Hugh Wake; executive committee, Harry Hooton, S. G. Lawrence and G. C. Andrew.

The Swiss Olympic committee has decided to send four or five of its best men entered for the 1924 Olympic Games to train in Paris as early as April and to remain in the French capital until the games are over. They have asked the French Olympic Committee to permit the chosen men to train at Colombes during April, May and June so as to become familias with the track. The permission has been given.

The question of settling the championship of the three year olds is getting complicated. England still thinks Papyrus would have done much better against Zev under different circumstances. Zev, in the meantime, has been beaten by In Memoriam. My Own seems to be out of it. Now France is to the front with Epinard, one of the greatest sprinters ever to be developed in that country. France thinks Epinard is greater than Papyrus or America's best and wants a match race.

The Corinthians, premier English amateur football team, are coming to Canada next year and the following program has been tentatively set out for their tour: July 28, Montreal; July 29, Ottawa; August 2, Toronto; August 4, Hamilton; August 7, Fort William; August 9, Winnipeg; August 11, Regina; August 13, Saskatoon or Moose Jaw; August 16, Vancouver; August 18, Victoria or Nanaimo; Ausust 21, Edmonton; August 23, Calgary; August 25, Winnipeg; August 30, Toronto; September 1, Montreal.
