BED BUGS AT WASHINGTON

Insecticide Bureau of U.S. Government Hangs Out White Flag

WASHINGTON, July 31. — The insecticide bureau of the department of agriculture, here has hung out the "white flag," and beseched the country to cease sending in bed bugs.

Responding with alacrity to its appeal of a week ago for 1200 bed bugs at one cent per bug on which to test insecticide powders, thoughtful American citizens have deluged the bureau with bottles and bags of the pest until corridors of the bureau are one vast menagerie of bed bugs numbering thousands.

From nearly every state in the union choice specimens in lots of 100 to 12,000 have been dumped at its doors every day since the appeal was launched. Every variety, including the residential, the hotel, and the jail bed bug is represented.

Offers of Millions

Accompanying the sample shipments have come offers of millions more, if the bureau needs them. Some willing co-operators have offered to send the bureau the names and addresses of hotels, jails, lodging houses, at which year's supply may be obtained for the asking.

With the present supply in hand, amply sufficient for an extensive period of operation, the bureau will content itself.

When the stock runs out, the bureau will replenish its supply in a quieter way. Having gauged the generosity of the American people, it will not run again the risk of straining its storage facilities.

VICTORIA, July 31. — Gordon McEwan, poundkeeper at Sidney, paid a fine of $15 in City Police Court for taking too strong a fancy to a black Gordon setter dog, the property of W. Stevenson. Accused stated in his defense that the dog persisted in following him, and that he had intended harboring him only until such time as the owner advertised for him. Sergeant Walker, of the city police department, had warned him not to take the animal or permit it to follow him.

Baby cutting Teeth was very Sick With Diarrhoea

Mrs. C. W. Myers, Clanwilliam, Man., writes:—"My baby girl was very sick with diarrhoea when she was cutting her teeth. I tried several different remedies, but nothing did her any good. She was getting worse when my mother sent me out a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract or Wild Strawberry, no remedy that has had the endorsement of so many Canadian mothers during the past 78 years it has been on the market.

Mrs. C. W. Myers, Clanwilliam, Man., writes:—"My baby girl was very sick with diarrhoea when she was cutting her teeth. I tried several different remedies, but nothing did her any good. She was getting worse when my mother sent me out a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract or Wild Strawberry. I gave her a few doses and the next day she was much better, and in a couple more days she was as well as ever.

Now, I always keep Dr. Fowler's in the house and recommend it to all those troubled with diarrhoea."

Mme. Suzanne Lenglen, the famous lawn-tennis star, recently entertained hundreds of thousands of "listeners-in" with a piquant talk at London about her self and her habits. In winning French manner she tripped from one thing to another, and surprised her unseen audience with her command of English. She told her admirers how she kept her stockings up in play, why she sometimes cried on the court, what it is like to be a champion at Wimbledon, and what a false legend it was which depicted her as a slave of her father, who was really very kind and patient.

I am so very pleased to have a chance of speaking to you," said Suzanne with a charming French accent. "When I play at Wimbledon, where thousands of people may be looking, I cannot talk with you. Now I understand I am talking to thousands. How nice it is to be in England! I have great love for this country, because my great grandmother was English.

"I like to give you tonight some hints about myself, as I understand you all talk about me and are curious about my stockings. How I keep them up? I role a piece of elastic round twice. I hope the gentlemen will not be shocked. "Sometimes I feel a little sick. Then you cannot do yourself justice, so I retire from the court. This is allowed, but I am laughed at that I feel faint, and I cry. I do not, but I have just dust in my eye. I do not cry because I am behind in the score; they cannot believe I am ever ill, so I cry."

The second half of the schedule for the Stuart Shield and Gilhuly Cup series is as follows:

Stuart Shield

July 31 — S.O.C. vs. Grotto; Roberts, referee.

Aug. 6 — S.O.E. vs. S.O.C.; Russell, referee.

Aug. 14 — Grotto vs. S.O.E.; Roberts, referee.

Gilhuly Cup

Aug. 3 — Grotto vs. S.O.E.; Russell, referee.

Aug. 9 — S.O.C. vs. Grotto; Roberts, referee.

Aug. 17 — S.O.E. vs. S.O.C.; Russell, referee.

This should not happen again. And our fighting spirit should see that it does not happen again. It is absolutely unthinkable.
