

Gossard Corsets

TO LOOK MORE YOUTHFUL.

The modern corset doesn't aim to make us all queer, so we look all alike, as the old-fashioned corset did. It doesn't aim to give us that objectionable corseted look. It just coaxes, restrains, redistributes a little — makes us longer waisted, taller and a bit more slender. It gives us that graceful ease of movement which can only come with genuine comfort.

GOSSARD TYPE CORSETRY

insures each of us looking our individual best, always. Our corsetieres can tell you some interesting things about this new beauty aid.

DIVORCES IN CANADA FEW

Per Centage is Low but British Columbia is at Top of the List

OTTAWA, July 31.—Marriages in Canada are successful, and families still are loyal to the "till death do us part" tradition. Divorces granted in the Dominion numbered only 544 in 1922, or two-thirds of one per cent of all the marriages contracted, according to a report just compiled by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Based on population, the report shows, divorces numbered seven to every 100,000 persons. Divorces in the United States, according to official figures for the last year on record, numbered 112 to every 100,000 people. "The 1922 figures," says the report, "probably indicate that the wave of divorce due to the war has reached its highest point and is now on the decline. Total decrees granted last year showed a reduction of four compared with 1921. The remarkably low per centage of divorces shows the stability of Canadian homes and institutions."

B. C. Leads

Of the total divorces granted, husbands received 316, or about 60 per cent and wives 228, or about 40 per cent. British Columbia led in decrees issued, with 138, followed by Alberta with 129 and Manitoba with 97. One pro-

Thus all records—regardless of the make—are at your disposal when there is a Brunswick in your home.

Who Has Hot Bread?

Mrs. J. O. Martin is a young English bride who recently came out to marry a Texan who went overseas with the Canadian forces. The husband likes "hot bread," which "isn't bread at all," she says. The newest idea she has is scones, and he calls them biscuits. Mrs. M. says her biscuits are "cakes or cookies." This bride of a few short weeks is living far from any neighbors and earnestly requests some recipes for "hot breads." Will some kindly American cook help her out through us?

The greater per cent of the divorced were residents of cities. Comparatively few applications were made among the agricultural population.
