BURNS LAKE AND LAKES DISTRICT

Miss Patricia Harrison is the guest of her sister Mrs. F. L. Carroll, of Burns Lake. At the end of this week she will leave for her home at Wistaria, where she will spend several weeks before returning to White Bird, Idaho.

Mrs. Jake Henkel, of Francois Lake returned on Saturday from a business trip to Prince George.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Carroll returned recently from a trip to the Babine where the former was attending to his duties as fire ranger. While there Mrs. Carroll caught a fine rainbow trout weighing a little over four pounds and measuring 22 1/2 inches, which, according to her statement, put up a very interesting fight.

Joe Oreskovich, of McDonald's Landing, gave a jolly dance at his ranch last week. A large number of the local residents besides residents of Bickle and a jolly party from Colleymount were in attendance. The latter made an eventful crossing of Francois Lake in Stanley's boat "Old Sport." Joe's hospitality was of the best and all the visitors enjoyed themselves to the limit.

Miss Irma Lewis arrived here from Smithers on Thursday and will visit in Burns Lake for a week or two.

The excellent rains during the past two weeks and continued warm weather have had a wonderful effect on the vegetation throughout the district and the conditions were never more auspicious for a bumper crop. All the agriculturists and gardening

The Secret of Its Success

THE SALVATION ARMY not only believed that there was hope for the worst, it went after the worst—in the slum, in the gutter, in the prison—

It is still doing this all over the world

YOUR contribution to The SALVATION ARMY Annual SERVICE APPEAL is a wise investment in practical Christianity.

Annual Service Appeal

Adjutant Kerr, financial representative, asks only that he be given the funds with which to serve the community for another year.

enthusiasts wear a smile these days.

Mrs. Fay S. Short and baby boy of Burns Lake, paid a visit to the parental roof at Colleymount last week.

M. T. Harrison, the popular secretary of the Burns Lake & District Farmers' Institute, left last Sunday for an official visit to Prince George.

The settlers of Decker Lake are to be congratulated upon a most enjoyable dance given in the Community Hall on Saturday night. Bill Johnston and Frank Lewis contributed some excellent dance music and Miss Irma Lewis also assisted on the piano and Frank Saeke helped on the violin. A large number were in attendance from Burns Lake and Pallang.

Miss Matud Andrews, of Edmonton, is spending a few days in Burns Lake as the guest of her sister, Miss Grace Andrews. She will leave in a few days for Prince Rupert en route to her home in Vancouver to visit her parents.

J. A. Wiggins was a Babine visitor in Burns Lake on Sunday.

E. R. Woodcock, of Sheraton was transacting business in Burns Lake on Saturday.

About forty Indians from the Babine and various points are spending the week end at Burns Lake, bent upon trading activities.

R. H. Leighton, of Smithers was a week end visitor in Burns Lake.

P. Olson, of Engen, was registered at the Omineca Hotel and renewed old acquaintances here on Friday.

Considerable interest in prospecting is in evidence in the vicinity of Bald Hill and in the territory situated between Francois Lake and Tekesinkut Lake. A number of likely leads have been discovered.

J. L. McCush, of Francois Lake was a business visitor in Burns Lake on Friday.

One of our popular Burns Lake ladies made the trip to the Decker Lake dance in a motor boat—but she returned by auto.

Lawyer Fred Fraser returned on Saturday from a business trip to Fort Fraser.

ANYOX

Not satisfied with staging a successful ball game last week, the married and single girls got together and put on a dance in the Elks Hall, giving the proceeds, after expenses had been paid, to the Anyox Brass Band Fund. This amounted to some $30.00, and was greatly appreciated by the bandmen, and shows that the people appreciate the efforts they are continually making to provide the residents of Anyox with good music.

The Ladies Aid of the Union Church staged their annual Sunday School picnic at the saw mill on Saturday, June 16. All the kiddies, young and old, were transported in the Granby Company's launch "Caprice," and a royal day was spent in disposing of ice cream, cakes and what not; while during the moments when not engaged with the goodies, games of all kinds were engaged in, and a tired but happy crowd returned to town in the evening singing the praises of Mesdames Gloke and Patrick, as well as the other ladies of the Aid who helped. "Teddy," the genial caretaker of the saw mill property, came in for many happy reference for the manner in which he catered to the pleasure of the picnicers.

The output of the Hidden Creek Mine for the period June 4 to the 12 inclusive was 19,827 wet tons. Total for the month of June to the 12th, 25,023 tons.

Coke Plant production, June 5 to June 11 inclusive, 1,461 short tons of coal were charged and 970 short tons of coke produced; 3,252 imperial gallons of light oil were recovered and 63,987 lbs. of ammonium sulphate were manufactured.

The Smelter returns from June 1 to June 10 inclusive, show that 22,037 wet tons of ore were treated at Anyox smelter. This was made up as follows: Anyox ore, 20,687 tons; outside ore, 1,350 tons. Average price of copper for the week 14.619c.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gonzales entertained about twenty couples at a delightful bridge and dance last evening at their home, Fourth Avenue West.
