Local Merchant Makes Observations from Friday's Meeting

Editor, Daily News: Are We Fools ?

The writer attended Friday night's meeting in the City Hall at which a resolution was passed to close the ports of Prince Rupert and Vancouver to American fishing vessels. Without exception all the speakers volunteered the opinion that the city would be hurt.

First-Some of the Canadian vessel owners admitted the probability of their receiving a reduced price for their fish.

Second - The representatives of the ship supply houses stated that they would lose more than any other merchant in town, but they supported the resolution, family. Why this unselfishness ?

Third-Some Canadian fishermen felt that it might hurt them deavoring to have legislation but they were prepared to take a enacted in the U.S. to prevent WARSAW NURSES chance. This is gambling.

CARE IS URGED IN USE AND HANDLING

The Federal Department nes has issued a booklet with to preventing accidents arising from the innocent or foolish handling of explosives. In the memorandum is submitted! a list of rules for the keeping and use of explosives suggested for LAND ACT AMENDMENTS inclusion in municipal bylaws. Lists of accidents occurring during the past year are also given showing that many lives were taken, the most of which, with observance of proper care, could have been saved. Carelessness on the part of anyone having oceasion to keep or use explosives, which results in explosives being left exposed, cannot be condoned, the booklet states.

ENGLISH-IRISH TRADE IMPROVES

LONDON, Dec. 27 .- The imports from the Irish Free State into Great Britain for October showed an increase of 83 per cent as compared with the average for the first nine months of the year. While the export trade with Free State also showed an increase it amounts to only about half the value of the imports.

The total figures of both the imports and exports to this dominion are more than ten times Land." greater than they were two years ago. The imports are principally cattle and swine, poultry, hides and wool.
