CANADA WON BALL GAME

Much Heralded International Match Played Yesterday at Acropolis Grounds

The much heralded international baseball game between Canada and the United States was played yesterday afternoon at the Acropolis Hill grounds before a crowd of about 200 fans and the honors went to Canada in a well contested match by a score of 9 to 5. Good fielding on both sides was a feature.

Harvey Fraser and Harry Menzies were the umpires and the teams lined up as follows:

Canada—P. Laporte, c; H. Astoria, p; G. McMillan, 1b; W. Lambie, 2b; W. E. Thompson, ss; Austin Henderson, 3b; W. D. Vance, lf; D. Graham, rf.
United States—George Shaw, c; Jack Hatchford, p; J. Sims, 1b; Louis Astoria, 2b; J. Quinn, ss; V. Meagher, 3b; George Rudderham, lf; R. Howe, rf; Ralph Smith, cf.

The Canadians have expressed their willingness to engage in a return match.

Sport Chat

Friday night's Senior baseball game between the Sons of Canada and Gil's was a very fair exhibition for so early in the season. It would have needed very little tightening up to have made it a good league game as ever was played here. As the season advances and the boys get in a little more practice, their play should improve in the degree desired and some good fight games should be provided. News comes from the Grotto camp that their team, which proved rather disappointing on its initial appearance on May 24, is undergoing some strengthening and will not let its opponents in future get by so easily as did the Sons of Canada on that occasion. It is announced that Mathelson has been added to their pitching staff. The next Senior League is set down for Friday of this week between the Grotto and Gil's.

The sport program for the week is as follows:
Monday—Intermediate Baseball, White Sox vs. Colts.
Tuesday—Junior Baseball, Falcons vs. White Sox.
Senior Football, Sons of England vs. Grotto.
Thursday—Senior Baseball, Grotto vs. Gils.
Friday—Junior Baseball, Scouts vs. Falcons.
Junior Baseball, Public School vs. High School.

In Europe the professional athlete is virtually unknown, and as a result amateurs are coming to expect, even demand, indirect money payments for their services. Take football, for instance. Sometimes 50,000 people will pay gate money to witness an amateur game, and the players are loath to see all this money fatten the purses of promoters. The problem of dealing with the amateur who has developed in to a star, realizes that he is a drawing card, and demands pay, was taken up recently at a meeting of the International Olympic committee. Many of the countries, including Holland, Sweden, Denmark and Austria, presented their problems of dealing with these stars. The committee decided that under no consideration should an Olympic athlete be given pay, but they left the definition of amateur and professional to each individual country.

Eugene Ciqui, the new featherweight boxing champion of the world, has had his greatest pugilistic success since the war, although handicapped by a reconstructed jaw. He is a clever boxer and a fairly hard hitter. The little Frenchman, now 30 years old, has been fighting since he was 15. Before the war he engaged in more than 100 contests. He served in the war and lay for many months in hospital after having had the left side of his jaw shot away at Verdun. On the close of hostilities he resumed pugilism and had marked success. While he has never been actually knocked out he failed to go the route on three occasions. In 1914 he retired in the twelfth round of a bout with Charley Ledoux, French bantam, but last year evened up the score with his countryman by knocking him out in one round. In 1919 he quit a fight with Tommy Noble claiming a foul and later held him to a draw. The same year he quit a fight with Pal Moore also on the claim of a foul. Last year Ciqui won the European feather title, knocking out Arthur Wyns, of Belgium, and Billy Matthews of England, both claimants of the title, in the twelfth and seventeenth rounds respectively.

Owing to the requisite eight men not being out, no spoon was awarded.
