WEEK AT WESTHOLME

Monday and Tuesday, Monday Matinee.
Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson in the expedition picture, "Trailing African Wild Animals."
Harold Lloyd in "A Tailor Made Man."
Pathe Review.

Wednesday and Thursday.
Douglas MacLean and Madge Bellamy in "The Hottentot."
Toonerville comedy, "The Skipper's Sermon."

Friday and Saturday, Saturday Matinee.
Priscilla Dean in "Conflict."
Century Comedy "Ginger Face."
Fox News-Gazette.

The last scene has been taken in Mary Pickford's latest play "The Street Singer" and the popular star will now plunge into "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall."

To Julianne Johnston, one of the most promising young players in filmdom, has come the honor of being the first person to be chosen for the cast of Douglas Fairbanks' new picture "The Thief of Bagdad," the making of which has been started at Hollywood.

Norma Talmadge and Glenn Hunter will act as judges in a poster campaign conducted by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. They have offered cash prizes themselves.

"Maryann" is the title of the next picture in which Mabel Normand will appear after "The Extra Girl," on which she is now working, is finished.

A popularity vote taken among the High School students of New York showed Mary Pickford, Norma Talmadge and Constance Talmadge at the top of the list among screen actresses. Wallace Reid, Rudolph Valentino and Douglas Fairbanks were adjudged the most popular men. The boys selected Douglas Fairbanks as their favorite actor and the girls preferred Rudolph Valentino.

Eosta Ekman, idol of the Swedish screen and stage, is coming to America to play the lead in a photoplay for Goldwyn Pictures Corporation.

AFRICAN PICTURE FULL OF THRILLS

Fine Educational Film is Being Presented as First of Week Attraction at Westholme

As a special holiday attraction the management of the Westholme Theatre is tonight and tomorrow night presenting to its patrons the extraordinary educational travel pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, "Trailing African Wild Animals with Gun and Camera."

Nearly every animal known to the African wilds is shown in natural environment in the picture which was taken in the course of an expedition by Mr. and Mrs. Johnson whose previous films of a similar nature have always proved so pleasing and interesting. There are also many thrills such as the killing of man-eating animals at the camera mouth and the shooting of a wild elephant as it charged the camera man.

"THE HOTTENTOT" IS CLEVER FILM

None of Punch of Stage Play is Lost in Screen Version of Famous Comedy

None of the humor and action of the original stage play of "The Hottentot" in which William Collier kept Broadway laughing for over a year, has been lost in the film version of the story, which is coming to the Westholme theatre on Wednesday and Thursday nights this week.

The cleverest wit in the stage play has been reproduced on the screen in the titles. Additional funny situations have been worked in, while the steeplechase, which could only be talked about in the play, is a thrilling piece of realism in the picture. It is the exciting climax of the fun and thrills that arise from the embarrassing situations in which a yachtsman who is afraid of horses and who is mistaken for a rider of the same name gets himself.

Douglas MacLean as Sam Harrington wins the race and the love of a girl who is portrayed by pretty Madge Bellamy. Raymond Hatton takes the part of Swift, the eccentric butler, who is an ex-hostler, and is good for a laugh every time he appears on the screen.

Scenes of British Columbia Woods in Lumbering Play Coming at Week End

A rushing, roaring sweep of resistless waters released from bondage—a mighty torrent of lumber crushing, grinding all before it—logs bumping, splintering in the swirling waters—sweeping all before its relentless path. Such is one of the big thrills in "Conflict."

The most gripping, soul-searing moment ever filmed. Terrific in its intensity, the mighty log jam, the blowing up of the dam, and the swashing torrent of felled forest is the mightiest spectacle of the camera's art.

In all its splendor, in all its ruthless glory, "Conflict," Priscilla Dean's wonderful new Universal-Jewel, coming to the Westholme Theatre next Friday and Saturday, vividly records the actual dynamiting of a huge dam, and the breaking loose of hundreds of thousands of the prisoned logs.

"Conflict," the sensational Red Book serial by Clarence Buding Kelland, is a mystery-drama, the rugged mountain country of the British Columbia woods being its locale.

"Conflict" is the story of a fight—the battle of two indomitable wills—the struggle for the mastery of the logging industry.

The beauty of the photography and the magnificent scenery of the woods country is unsurpassed.

Thousands upon thousands of huge logs whirling through the dynamited dam were caught by the six camera-men who risked their lives to attain this remarkable film.

An entire logging camp, running at full blast with all its men, was requisitioned by Stuart Paton in the direction of this marvellous picture.
