Your Friends

If there is one thing we do appreciate in this world it is our friends and to find a charming and sincere way in which to tell them so is a problem that is not easy to solve. There is, however, one season of the year when expression of appreciation and friendliness is appreciated.

The Xmas Season

No token of friendship is more effective than a LASTING GIFT no matter how small. It gives the sterling ring of sincerity as nothing else can do in the years to come.

JACK NADEN TOOK PRIZE MASQUERADE BUZZING TELEPHONE

A. Kirkpatrick has received from his son Gordon at the University of Toronto a copy of the university daily paper giving an account of the winning of the prize for originality of costume at a masquerade ball by Jack Naden son of the deputy minister of agriculture and formerly a resident of this city. Jack was dressed as a buzzing telephone and Miss Margaret Loc-|head was the operator. A picture of the character was shown in the journal as well as a description of the event.

PRINCE RECEIVES LETTER FROM GIRL

Asked by British Fourteen Year Old What Natives of Canada Were Like

LONDON, Dec. 3 .- In the first speech delivered after his return from Canada the Prince of Wales remarked that he would like to encourage a spirit of travel in statesmen, journalists, writers, and school teachers-in fact, all the distributors of information to the people of Great Britain. He amused his audience with the story of a letter that he had just received from a girl of fourteen, who hoped that he had had a good holiday, and wanted to know what the natives of Canada were like! If some of the school teachers could be sent out to see something of the Empire he would not receive letters like

Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, in response to a toast, said he was sure that the Prince's appeal would fall upon willing ears. He hoped that, in reply to the letter of the young lady of fourteen, His Royal Highness had given an accurate description of the "Canadian natives." He was quite sure that there were not many girls of fourteen-or over! -who culd not give an accurate description of the Prince of Wales.

GERMANS STARVE AS POLITICIANS QUIBBLE

Soup Kitchens Aiready Operating in Cities and People are Restless

BERLIN, Dec. 3 .- While poliicians quibble and delay, the Germans starve or live on insufficient rations. Unemployment grows at a rapid gate and millions of Germans face a winter of want and privation.

Berlin and other cities and towns have established municipal kitchens. Limited quantities of free fuel are provided for by cards. But the meals and the fuel are dependent upon cards whose issuance is irregular and shares the general disorder which has Prince Rupert students at the OLD CENTRE STREET IS RE- spread throughout the control of

With the abolishment of the ELKS HALL WHICH OPENED breadcard and the subsequent rise of German blackbread to figures which are fantastic i comparison with the unemploy. ment doles, the situation became more acute than ever and gave political agitators their opportunity to incite riot.

The condition of the unemployed is pahetic in the extreme. By degrees the old people, many of them middle-class, have been forced to go upon the streets for
