WOMEN ARE HARD ON MEMBERS OWN SEX GERMAN COURT CASES

BERLIN, March 14.—German women, recently accorded the right to sit on juries in criminal cases, have shown an inclination to impose even more severe punishment than men, particularly in cases where the defendants have been women.

"I always feel sorry for a woman defendant," said a Berlin judge commenting on woman's entry into the jury box, "when a majority of the jury is composed of the fairer sex. My experience so far has been that the women have less mercy than men, and hold out for verdicts accordingly."

Ever since Germany became a republic and women gained the right to ballot, the question of permitting them to sit on juries has been brought up for discussion from time to time, there being many opponents to the advancements of women's right among the public generally and especially in the legal profession. It was long contended that women were too tender-hearted to listen to sordid details of criminal cases. But the women denounced to those contentions, kept up the struggle for admission as jurors and, after nearly four years have finally won their point.

5,000 FARMERS RAISE SILVER FOXES IN U.S.

Many Also Raise Other Varieties of Fur in 25 States

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Canadians for some years have been taking the lead in the fur farming industry, and Canadian bred foxes, particularly those of the Maritime Provinces are famous through the United States. It now appears that many people on this side of the line are following the example set by Canadians in establishing this profitable industry. A recent bulletin issued by the Department of Agriculture says:

Important progress has been made in investigations pertaining to the rearing of wild fur bearing animals in captivity. Fur farms are reported from twenty-five States where foxes, skunks, raccoons, minks, opossums, marten, muskrats, squirrels and beaver are raised. It is estimated that 500 ranchers are raising silver foxes in the United States, that they have between 12,000 and 15,000 foxes in captivity, and that the value of the investment is about $8,000,000.

FOUND BOGUS BILLS IN CLOGGED SEWER

Tenants of Building all Deny Knowledge of Bad Money

NEW YORK, March 14.—(By Canadian Press).—When the sewage system in a west side apartment house inhabited by Italians and Spaniards became clogged the other day, Henry Welton, a plumber, was called in to investigate. The police are doing the investigating now for Walthon. Upon opening up the trap in the cellar, they discovered several hundred ten dollar bills. "All counterfeit," reported secret service agents who examined the find. The police believe the bills were thrown into the trap by some one who feared arrest following the recent uncovering by Federal agents of a big counterfeiting plot. The tenants of the building all deny knowledge of the source of the bills.

SOVIET FARMERS ASK FOR BULLETINS EDUCATIONAL NATURE

ORONO, Maine, March 14.—An indication that many residents of Soviet Russia are joining in an effort to place their country on a self-sustaining food basis is seen by officials of the Maine agricultural experiment station in the fact that 841 requests for bulletins on scientific farming were received here from Russia during the past year. This was the largest number of inquiries received from foreign countries. Canada was second with 295 requests and countries in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America, Australasia and the East and West Indies were represented.
