Committee Appointed at Meeting Held Last Night to Organize Big Event

ALL WERE IN FAVOR

Archdeacon Rix Heads Executive That Will Meet Next Week to Formulate Plans

A meeting to consider the proposed inauguration of a Musical Festival for Northern and Central B.C. was held in the Northern Polytechnic Institute offices yesterday evening. Invitations had been previously sent out to various representative organizations in town, and the following delegates were present:

Miss M. A. Way, music teacher; Mrs. W. E. Williams, Ladies' Musical Club; Rev. Archdeacon G. A. Rix, Anglican Church; W. Vaughan Davies, Baptist Church choir; W. H. Derry, Elks; P. H. Linzey, Knights of Pythias; George Rorie, Rotary Club; D. C. Stuart, St. Andrews; F. Dibb, Musical Society; J. Pinder-Moss, Northern Polytechnic Institute.

Outlined Proposal

The Rev. Archdeacon Rix occupied the chair and Mr. Pinder-Moss who acted as secretary for the meeting was called upon to outline his proposals for the establishment of such a society. His suggestion was that a musical festival be arranged for some time at the end of April or May, consisting of competitions between choirs, orchestras, vocal groups and school children's choirs and instrumentalists. He believed there was a great deal of latent talent throughout the district which was worthy of encouraging and such an organization as was proposed would stimulate a love of music and the competitions would be an incentive towards study. He outlined splendid work done by the Alberta Musical Festival, which from small beginnings had developed into quite a power in that province. Mr. Pinder-Moss suggested that the organization of the institute be used for the purpose of encouraging the festival idea throughout the district.

Mr. Rorie said that he was heartily in favor of the proposal and considered that it was a very feasable scheme. It was purely a question of revenue and as he understood it, there would be a revenue from the concert, from entries, and from admission to the competitions. Although he did not anticipate any deficit he would suggest that if the proposal was carried through, the society should obtain guarantors who would support the society to the extent of $5.00 or $10.00, which, of course, would not be called upon except in the case of an emergency. He believed that there were sufficient public spirited men in the district who would appreciate the aesthetic value and the business value the festival would be to Prince Rupert and the district in general.

Value to Children

Mr. Dibb was also heartily in favor of the proposal, as was also Mrs. Williams, and Mr. Stuart spoke of the value that such a society would be in encouraging music among the school children.

Archdeacon Rix said that he had every sympathy with the idea. He considered that we were much behind other centres in music, and he would certainly favor such a proposal.

It was moved by Mr. Rorie, seconded by Mr. Stuart, that this meeting put itself on record as favoring the organization of a committee which will make an effort to promote the musical interests of the district through encouraging competitions in a Musical Festival which will be arranged by this committee or its successor. This was carried unanimously.

The following officers were then elected as an executive committee:

The Committee

Rev. Archdeacon Rix, chairman; W. J. Pitman of Prince George, vice-chairman; J. S. Gray, of Smithers, 2nd vice-chairman; John Pinder-Moss, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Williams, F. Dibb, and J. W. Nicholls, executive committee.

It was decided to call a meeting of the executive committee on Monday, September 3.

GOING TO BED

Of two friends staying at the hostelry where most keys fit most doors, one went off to bed, undressed and turned in, mistaking his friends room for his own. Half an hour later the friend followed, saw his bed occupied, and returned to the coffee room. "Did you see me go to my room just now?" he said to the night porter. "Yes, sir," was the reply. "Well then, why didn't you tell me I'd gone to bed already?" he grunted, and continued to finish the night on a chair in front of the fire."—Yorkshire Post.

PRINCESS IN LOVE WITH AMERICAN BOY

Girl is Just Past Fourteen But Writes to Lad on Pennsylvania Farm

BUCHAREST, Aug. 27.—Queen Marie tells a delightful story about her youngest daughter, Princess Ileana, in which an American doughboy living in Pennsylvania figures.

The former Yankee soldier, who had served on the western front in France, returned to his father's farm in a little town near Philadelphia, where he saw photographs of the little princess with her pet dog in the American Sunday pictorial supplements. Enamoured of her smile and girlish beauty, the doughboy wrote the princess asking her to correspond with him, and saying if she would become his girl he would "never take any other girl to the movies."

Surpassingly Pretty

The princess, who is just past 14 and surpassingly pretty, replied to the Yankee soldier boy, enclosing her photograph and saying she had heard a lot about the gallantry of the American soldiers and would be delighted to hear from him again. The doughboy replied expressing his renewed admiration for Europe's prettiest princess and a wish to see her in real life. Ileana was about to acknowledge his letter when her mother, Queen Marie, discovered the correspondence and cautioned her that she must not raise false hopes in the heart of her youthful admirer. She ceased her letters regretfully but the letters from the doughboy have continued to this day.

In relating the story the Queen took occasion to say that the frequent reports about the engagement of Ileana to King Boris of Bulgaria were silly fabrications, and she cited the doughboy story as illustrating the childlike simplicity of Ileana and her unpreparedness for marriage.
