PET PARADE AT SMITHERS

Children's Day in Connection With Chautauqua Proved Wonderful Event

SMITHERS, Aug. 21. — The children of Smithers have good cause to remember the 1923 chautauqua Saturday last was a red-letter day in their young lives, and a day to which they eagerly looked forward. The pet parade inaugurated by Miss McKay of the chautauquas was held from the Boy Scout Hall. Some time before the advertised hour children in all imaginable costumes and accompanied by their pet dogs, cats, birds and parrots and a large number of dolls, began to gather. The parade was led by Will Lea, clown of the chatauqua, and it was a very motley-looking following he captained.

S. Campbell's ice cream parlor was the objective, where through the generosity of E. E. Orchard the "army" was treated to ice cream, after which "fall in" was sounded and the "O.C." led his charges to the town hall where the judging took place.

Mrs. E. E. Orchard, Mrs. Byrne, and Mrs. Haft acted as judges, and their decisions which were reached after most careful consideration were favorably received.

The following were the prize-winners:

Jerry Warner, for oldest and largest, dressed as a gipsy and leading a mammoth Newfoundland dog.

Patsy Hetherington, for the queerest, a bantam.

Vera Doodson in her excellent guise of an "Old Woman" won the prize for the most original.

"The cleverest" was clever indeed, and consisted of a Roman chariot drawn by a large dog. All the tinsel and trappings were conspicuous and showed much ingenuity on the part of Harold Berg and P. Raymond who were joint winners of first prize.

Margaret Windt as a "Butterfly" took first for the best costume.

Theo. Rabbe won first for the smallest pet with a diminutive kitten.

Vimy Windt as "Robin Hood" and bearing the horn carried off first prize in the best musical instrument class.

At 5.00 p.m. all repaired to the banks of the Bulkley River, and enjoyed a picnic. Bathing suits were the most conspicuous item of dress and the sand bar reminded one of a fairy dell with water nymphs disporting in its shade.

Tired, but happy, all returned home full of joy (also ice cream, lemonade, etc.) intermingled with regret that such days must have an end.

R. E. Moore, local manager of P. Burns & Co., Ltd., returned yesterday afternoon by the Prince Rupert from a business trip to Vancouver.

ORGY OF ELEMENTS IN BULKLEY VALLEY

Second Storm Breaks There Saturday Night and Continues Until Daybreak, Another Sunday

SMITHERS, Aug. 21. — If the god of thunder has been remiss in his visits to this district he is assuredly bent on making amends, for not content with his visit of Friday night, he returned again on Saturday night, and in no uncertain voice made known his presence.

From sunset Saturday until daybreak Sunday was one continuous orgy of the elements — lightning, thunder and rain.

The lightning flashed one might say incessantly, and its close proximity was proven by the thunderous claps which simultaneously boomed with the flash.

The rainfall was excessive and coupled with Friday's downpour is sufficient ta satisfy the most wet advocate until next spring.

The past week has produced more and greater electrical disturbances than any of the old timers can recollect.

No reports have reached town of any damage from the double event, but it will be a few days before lying fodder crops will be dry enough to handle.

Sunday night witnessed the worst storm of the series. The rain, which was lashed by a high wind was driven in sheets and fell heavily and steadily for hours.

SMITHERS WILL SEND GOOD BALL TEAM TO PLAY HERE AT FAIR

SMITHERS, Aug. 21. — The Smithers Athletic Association has decided to send a baseball nine to the Prince Rupert Fair, under the management of S. A. Arnold.

It is Mr. Arnold's intention to have the boys put on a superior game, and to that end strenuous training is being indulged in so that the players may be in the acme of condition.

While the personnel of the team is not definitely decided, there will be a most representative bunch of local ball tossers, bent on achieving victory.

There is every probability of a generous crowd of ardent supporters accompanying the team for the dual purpose of rooting for the home team and attending the fair.

Sport Chat

If baseball fans haven't anything much to do this evening they may spend an enjoyable hour or so by going up to the Acropolis Hill and watching the Intermediate Leaguers in action. The White Sox and Colts, who have been playing such good games lately, are due to meet again tonight. Beaten several times consecutively in the early games, the White Sox have won their last two victories from the Colts and are out to repeat the performance again tonight though their opopnents are determined that they shall not do so. The batteries will be: Clapp and Nickerson for the White Sox; D. Frizzell and Budenich for the Colts.

The fact that two men, Harry Sullivan and Triabocchi, the Argentino, have succeeded in swimming the English Channel, has led to the suggestion in sporting papers in America and abroad for an annual cross channel competition in which all contestants would start at a fixed time and under similar conditions. It is doubtful if this would work out, however, for it would eliminate one of the main features of the feat of swimming the channel for calculation of tide and weather conditions forms one of the main factors of success. For example, Tirabocchi was successful owing to calculation and gauging of conditions whereas Sullivan, who took far longer, won out through endurance and stamina.

Acting Mayor Collart at last night's council meeting announced the appointment of the following delegates to represent the city at the Union of B.C. Municipalities convention which opens here on Thursday of this week: Acting Mayor Collart, Ald. Stephens, Ald. Macdonald, Ald. Perry, Ald. Smith, Ald. Munro and City Solicitor Jones.
