BONUSING BAY ROUTE

Some of the papers in the east are commenting on the fact that the Hudson's Bay grain route is only made a possibility through the government bonus which goes with it. This past shipping season nearly three million bushels of grain were shipped through the new port of Churchill but the cost to the government has been about $70,000 and by next August, when it is completed, the amount will be about $280,000. The claim is made that the route is not a commercial possibility except it be bonused and that the federal government is not justified in continuing the bonus.

The proposal of the provincial government to try to balance its budget by reducing its contributions to municipalities which are already in liquidation does not seem a very reasonable one. Some other plan must be tried and possibly that may be a new manager for provincial affairs.

EVERYBODY BUSY

Everybody is busy. The merchants are busy supplying the needs of the people for Christmas and the people are times in thirty years would not busy seeing how much they can do without. But they have think at this date that an allotted to buy. The holiday must be celebrated in proper style and allowance to workers would be conthose with money are spending it more freely than usual, sidered dole. The difficulty is that there are so many people without the necessary funds for the occasion. The policy of entertaining a guest or a few guests for Christmas is more de- ers, I notice that when the boys sirable this year than ever before.

MOVING ROAD EQUIPMENT

It was reported at the meeting of the city council this brand pants, shirts and underwear week that road equipment was being removed from the lost their gloss and took on a few highway and sent out of the district. Already it is said a good deal of it had been taken away previously without so much as "by your leave." If the official removal of the outfit means that the provincial government has given up I would like to know if you had any holiday season visiting with relathe idea of constructing the provincial highway through the north it is another blow to the hopes of Prince Rupert.

When it is considered that only recently Premier Tolmie was intensely interested in the construction of a highway to Alaska it will be much more difficult for Prince Rupert people to reconcile this change of attitude to- out a net as I have failed to see any ward the north. Too young to really know what it was all apout, and Katherine, six and eight-year old daughters of "Flying Major" Hutchison, seem rather pleased with the Eskimo dolls picked up during their ill-fated trip to Greenland.

REPLY TO USK WRITER

Editor, Daily News:-With reference to a letter that I have read in your paper by a resident of Usk and describing himself as a worker, of which I am in grave doubt as the depression has not changed his ideas in regard to the conditions of the working class in Canada, I now have at hand a copy of the Vancouver Sun, dated November 30 which states: "Man's productive capacity jumped nine million times and this has happened within the last thirty years. Ministerial Declaration Given by Boncour Cabinet to French Chamber

PARIS, Dec. 22:-Premier Paul Boncour and his cabinet put final touches yesterday to a ministerial declaration which is to be presented to the Chamber of Deputles today for its consideration. Chief matters referred to in the statement of policy are debts and budget balancing.

The concensus of opinion in regard to war debts appears to favor some arrangement with the United States by means of an early debt conference. All members of the cabinet are believed to favor paying the installment which fell due last week and the continuing of negotiations looking to a readjustment of the whole debt situation.
