G. W. V.A. not in Favor Direct Political Action Amalgamation or Bonus

VANCOUVER, July 6. - The Great War Veterans do not favor amalgamation with other Canadian Veteran organizations if such amaigamation spells loss of the G.W.V.A. identity or the adoption of either the principle of a cash bonus or direct political action. After Secretary McLeod on Thursday addressed the veterans' convention here on amalgamation, supporting the principles mentioned, the G.W.V.A. tentatively submitted a motion for the purpose of testing the feeling of the convintion. The motion practically supported amalgamation under a name such as the United Veterans of Can-

: Optimistic Message Brought by Principal Vance to Rotary Club Urges Participation in Politics

Bringing a breezy message of optimism and of urge toward better social, political and international conditions, Principal duties. W. H. Vance of the Anglican Theological College at Vancouver, addressed a large meeting of Rotarians and others at the Rotary Club luncheon yesterday afternoon. J. W. Nicholls had charge of the program and presided at the gathering, the Rotary orchestra played several selections, S. K. Campbell gave two vocal solos and there were club songs. A number of visitors were present. Dr. Vance said this was his 37th trip across the continent

Six New Schools are Opened in Prince Rupert District and Four Reopened: Two Closed

School Inspector H. C. Fraser reports that Prince Rupert district is moving along steadily in school matters. During the past year attendance has shown a marked increase and a satisfactory matter is the general advancement of the work.

Since last September six new schools have been opened in the district, four schools have been re-opened, new divisions have been started at three points and only two schools have Valley, Streatham (near Wis-(near Telkwa) and Kispiox. TRADE UNIONS Schools which had been closed for some years were re-opened at Copper City, Refuge Bay, Georgetown and Skidezate. New divisions were started at Smithers. High. Schools were closed at Surf Inlet Beach and Colleymount. Application has been made for a school at Aiyansh.

Burns Lake which at present has a two-room assisted school now wants a three or four room building and a Superior School. Terrace is also aiming at a Superior School and a new oneroom addition for the High School is being built making School divisions there. Usk is having a new two room school

In two years Anyox has adto a regularly established High RAINFALL PUTS OUT School as Ocean Falls has also done. This year a second High School division is being opened at Ocean Falls.

High School Interest

A pleasing feature in the school work of the district during the past year has been the fact that there has been an increased in- ly general throughout the proterest in High School work, pubschool teachers at several oints voluntarily taking on High School students in addition to their regular Public School

There were High School examinations at 18 centres this summer, 36 teachers sending up point. There have been 414, or 179 pupils. These figures show a healthy increase over last year when examinations were held in 19 centres, 32 feachers sending 139 pupils. Prince Rupert sent up 62 Entrance pupils last month, Anyox 24, Smithers 12, Terrace 15, and Burns Lake, 9.
