Before the glass
With delicate hands.

The Christmas Puddings.

SO much grist comes to the mill at this season that it may become fashionable to call the season Gristmas.

THE Egyptians are sore at the explorers of King Tut's tomb and we would be sore too if the Egyptians were to come groping around in our Senate and carrying off the mummies.

HOW much clothes would it take to make cupid respectable?

TALKING of candidates for civic honors, the most popular sport in Prince Rupert today is passing the buck.

THE reason some of those young men never rise to higher thing is they forgot to put in the yeast.

Colts and Teachers are scheduled to battle again in the Senior Basketball League this evening. The Teachers are hoping for a turn of the tide and there are many fans who believe that their several close defeats so far this season may be converted into victory this time. In any case, it is generally expected that the game will be a good close one whichever way the honors go. The Kaiens and Teachers go to it in the Ladies' League and here again the pedagogues are very hopeful. Elks and High School meet in the Intermediate League match while the Colts and Stars, leaders in the Junior League, are scheduled to play.
