Road From Prince Rupert Is Needed.

A road leading out of Prince Rupert to Port Edward and points along the Skeena River is expected to be built soon. An arrangement has been made with the Railway Company that owns a portion of the land through which the road goes by which they will hand over part of their holdings as their share toward the building of the road. The deal, it is understood, has to be ratified by the Legislature which will vote the money for construction of the road.

Just how the matter will come before the Legislature we are not informed but it will be for the members of the Provincial House to decide whether or not the road shall be built.

Long Deferred

Hope Of City. CANCE SUMBER BUT The building of the road has been long deferred. For many years the people of Prince Rupert have been expecting it. has been explained before, not a single yard of road has been built by the province adjoining the city of Prince Rupert that can possibly be of any benefit to the citizens. Taxes have been afterwards named by Sir Joseph inches wide but only a pocket of ed in five jail sentences being of ears here, giving them the right to drive on their own roads which they have built with their own money. Few people on the ontside realize that there is a city of over six thousand people in the province with absolutely no outlet by road.

Need Of Road

Is Quite Evident. The need of the road is quite evident even to a person who has not been to Prince Rupert. There is a natural route to the interior by the Skeena River and any construction done at the Prince Rupert end will be a part of the trunk highway which will some day be one of the scenic drives of the province.

The road will connect Port Edward with Prince Rupert, will open up much garden land for cultivation, will provide a bound in Hecate straits and was crew. means of reaching some splendid suburban home sites, will give the canneries a means of reaching Prince Rupert, will provide a means of reaching several projected lumber mills and will first found the Tongass Indians sloop Virago, a paddle boat of something they are unable to do today except by water.

In return they get nothing.

The member for the district is one who favors the building and Portland Canal. of the road. He urged it many years ago and we are told he still and Portland Canal.

Urges it on the Government. What we are selving rock in the land Portland Canal. urges it on the Government. What we are asking now is that head was given to the chief lady the Legislature shall take action at this session to give such of the Massett tribe which she authority as is necessary so that the road may be commenced wore strung around her neck on immediately and carried through to completion as soon as possible.

There will be great developments in Prince Rupert very soon and we want our road development to keep pace with ship was struck by the large numeverything else. If the members of the Legislature could but ber of iron things aboard and live here for a few months they would feel what it is to be shut since that time white people have in as we are and they would not hesitate about voting the money which is ours by right.

COLLISON TELLS OF PIONEERING

Address Given to Rotary Club Proves Intensely Interesting to Members

An interesting story of the early discoveries in British Columbia showing how many of the local places obtained their names and how Indians were given their first volume of the Bible was teld to the Rotary Club yesterday afternoon by W. E. Collison, Indian Agent. Mr. Collison is at student of the history of this coast and his talk was much appreciaed by the members of the club. He was thanked by the president who spoke of the great interest taken in the subject. Mr. Collison told of many of the early discoverers who came to the coast and, said that the history of the country was indicated where he was stopped by a barrier of ice. He lost his life later at the Sandwich Islands which he

Forts were established by the Hudson's Bay Co., the first being on the Naas River at what is now known as Graveyard Point. It was not a suitable place and later the post was moved to Port Simpson. When the fort was abandoned at the mouth of the Naas the Indians were given a 25 gallon cask of rum which resulted in a drunken orgy of the wildest kind.
