ZAM-BUK

Beats Any Embrocation In Winter Aches & Pains

Try a Box To-Day!

Whilst Zam-Buk has long been recognized as Canada's most popular remedy in skin troubles, how many know how better it is than any poisonous liniment for relieving the sharp twinges of rheumatism, sciatica, or lumbago?

Zam-Buk is equally good for aching backs, stiff joints, sore muscles, cold in the head and chest, or sore throat.

Rubbed well into the affected parts, Zam-Buk's powerful pain-soothing essences soak right into the tissues, banishing soreness, congestion and inflammation. Others prefer to treat their colds so: they rub Zam-Buk between the palms of both hands and then inhale the evaporating medicinal balsams. This does the same good in another way.

HIS SLUGGISH LIVER MADE HIM FEEL DROWSY AND TIRED ALL THE TIME

When your liver becomes sluggish and inactive your whole health suffers, and the only way you can get back to feeling right is to make your liver right.

GIFTS THAT LAST

The Alaska Steamship Co.'s steamer Alameda, instituting a new service to this port from Seattle and Alaska, is expected to arrive Monday evening although no official notice has yet been received. She will be bound from Seattle to Skagway and intermediate points.

Union steamer Venture, Capt. A. Johnstone, arrived from the south at 6 o'clock this morning and, after unloading shingles and lumber at the Big Bay Lumber Co.'s wharf, proceeded at 10 o'clock to the Naas River. The vessel will be in port tomorrow morning southbound.

The new schedule of the Union Steamship Co. which has just been issued shows that the company will operate two vessels to this port throughout the winter. The Cardena will continue in the Stewart and Anyox service and the Venture on the Naas and Skeena River run. This will be the first winter that the Union company has maintained a double weekly passenger service to this port.

Having made up practically all the time she lost on her passage north, the steamer Prince George, Capt. W. S. Morehouse, pulled out for Vancouver shortly after 11 o'clock last night having returned from Anyox at 10 o'clock. The following were among the passengers booked south on the vessel: J. McCulloch, W.
