Sport Chat

Willie Meehan, the pudgy heavyweight of San Francisco, occupies a unique place in the ring record of Jack Dempsey, the world's heavyweight champion. He is one of the two men—Jack Downey is the other—who have won referee's decisions over Dempsey since the latter took up boxing. He is the only man Dempsey has met more than once in the ring, who was not eventually knocked out by the Manassa Mauler.

Billy Miske faced Dempsey twice and was knocked out. But the third time Dempsey stopped him in three rounds. Carl Morris lost a four-round decision to Dempsey the first time he met the champion-to-be. The next time they met Dempsey knocked him out in a round. Gunboat Smith's adventures with Dempsey were similar to those of Morris. The first time he lost a four-round decision, the next time he was stopped in a few punches.

Meehan boxed Dempsey four times, losing once, drawing twice, and taking a decision from him in 1918 after Dempsey had punched his way through a host of opponents in the East. Meehan is no longer active in the boxing game. Downey, who won a decision from Dempsey, at the outset of the latter's career, is now a trainer for one of the Pacific Coast League baseball clubs. Contrasted with Meehan's ability to evade Dempsey's knock-out punch, is the fate of Bill Brennan, who faced Dempsey twice and was stopped each time, once in six rounds, and the next time in twelve. Brennan, too, was stopped in twelve rounds by Luis Firpo. He and Willard are the only men whom both Dempsey and his challenger from South America have met in the ring.

North B.C. Regiment Riflemen Shot in Pouring Rain on Sunday — D. Corker Won Spoon

In spite of the fact that they shot in pouring rain, the North B.C. Regiment Rifle Association's marksmen turned in some very creditable scores on Sunday afternoon at their regular meeting on the McNichol Creek range. The Bert Greer cup was up for competition for the best total score at the three ranges. A. M. Davies and M. M. Lamb were tied at 87, but the former captured the trophy because he had the highest score at the 600 yard range. D. Corker won the spoon for the day with a score of 79. There were several higher scorers but all were handicapped.

The scores for the day:

	200	500	600
A. M. Davies	30	25	32	87
M. M. Lamb	32	30	25	87
