Pioneer Jeweler of This City Dies In California-Left Here

During War

Word has been received in the city of the recent death in San Diego of C. Christopher Loop, pioneer jeweler of this city, who left Prince Rupert during the war and has since resided in the United

The late Mr. Loop is survived by a widow, who is a sister of Mrs. George Eckerman of this city, and three children, all of whom were born in Prince Rupert and the oldest one of whom is 18 years of age.

His many friends of pioneer days here will regret to hear of Mr. Loop's demise.

Born in Eldred, Penn., the late Mr. Loop, who was a graduate of of Illinois, came to Prince Rupert above. in the early days from Tacoma and above. was first employed at Wark's jewelry store and later by R. W. Camron. Later he went into business for himself as a watchmaker, jeweler, engraver and optician with shop on Sixth Street in the Alder Block.
