BRINGING UP FATHER

Restore Vitality of Girlhood and Improve Physical Beauty

Beauty is sometimes a gift, but more often an acquirement. And any specialist will tell you that you can have a clearer complexion, better figure, rosier cheeks, and more of the sparkle of girlish health in your eyes, if you jealously guard the condition of your digestive organs, liver, nerves and blood—if you correct in time the little defects in your appearance that are so often quickly and easily remedied.

LOOK YOUR BEST! Build yourself up! Take a good tonic, as your doctor would advise. The prescription of Dr. H. S. Thacher, the celebrated American Physician, is now being used in countless numbers of cases here to round out the beautiful lines of the figure with firm, solid flesh. This wholesome vegetable tonic (known as Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup) has proved to be excellent for clearing up the skin by improving digestion, waking up the sluggish liver and sending purer, healthier blood coursing through rosy cheeks. Increase nerve force, vitality and "pep" and not only feel lots better, but let your mirror reflect a marked improvement in beauty.

TRY THIS TONIGHT! Just a spoonful of this celebrated vegetable tonic after the next few meals. Notice the quick difference in the way you eat, sleep, look and feel; and your druggist will refund the small cost unless you are completely satisfied. Get Dr. Thacher's from Ormes Limited in Prince Rupert and at leading druggists in each city and town.

MEMBER OF MARINE DEPARTMENT STAFF MARRIED IN SOUTH

Miss Mary Grant Becomes Bride of Hugh McKenzie—Will Live at Digby Island

The wedding was solemnized on the evening of November 23, in the vestry of Gore Avenue Presbyterian Church, Vancouver, Rev. Richmond Craig officiating, of Miss Mary Grant, daughter of the late Alexander Grant and Mrs. Grant of Elgin, Scotland, to Hugh MacKenzie, second son of the late Duncan MacKenzie of Aultbea, Rosshire, Scotland, and Mrs. MacKenzie of Elgin, Scotland. The bride wore a graceful dress of navy and grey canton crepe, with a French hat of navy velvet with a silver crown and ostrich plume at back. She carried a bouquet of ophelia roses and carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Hough, was dressed in navy canton crepe, embroidered in old rose, and worn with a hat of navy velvet and pale pink ostrich plumes. Her flowers were carnations and maidenhair fern. John McAuley of Prince Rupert was groomsman.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the Elysium hotel, and later the bride and groom left for a honeymoon trip to Victoria. Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie will live in Prince Rupert, where the groom is a member of the Digby Island Marine Department staff. The bride travelled in a tailored suit of navy tricotine and French velvet hat.

The groom's gift to the bride was a gold pendant of pearls and rubies and to the best man gold cuff links. The bride's gift to the groom was a pair of gold cuff links.

OFFICERS OF PRINCE ALBERT DENY STORIES

Say There Were no Fatal Fights on Vessel off San Francisco —Did Not Cut Cable

Steamer Prince Albert, formerly of the Canadian National Coast Steamship Service and now operated by the Western Freighters between Vancouver and Mexico, has returned to Vancouver after her first trip south. Her commander, Capt. Nicholls, and all officers deny the recent stories concerning fatal fights on board the vessel off San Francisco and also the charge that they cut the Postal Telegraph Co.'s cable twenty-five miles out of San Francisco. It is reported in Vancouver, however, that a suit for $100,000 damages is being entered by the Postal Telegraph Co. against the Prince Albert and her owners.

The Chief Skugaid has also returned to British Columbia waters from Mexico.

CHRIS STAPLETON DIES IN PORTLAND

Former Foundry Foreman at Dry Dock was Member of Elks Lodge and Expert Performer on Punching Bag

Word has reached the city of the death in Portland, Oregon, on Tuesday last of Chris Stapleton, formerly foreman of the foundry department at the Canadian National dry dock. The funeral takes place in that city tomorrow.

The late Chris Stapleton, who was a member of the local Elk's Lodge, left the city about two years ago for the benefit of his health and remained for a time in the state of Washington subsequently moving to Oregon. His condition was, however, serious and towards the last little hope for his recovery was entertained. Besides having a wide circle of acquaintances in the city, he was well known to the public as a performer on the punching bag at which he was an adept.

Deceased is survived by a widow who was with him when he passed away.

PECK SAYS HE WILL SUPPORT MR. BOWSER

Speaks at Meeting at Deep Cove and Says He Can Give Hard Blow and Take One

SIDNEY, B.C., Dec. 7.—A Conservative rally was held in the Deep Cove Social Club Hall. There was a good attendance, C. White being in the chair. He introduced Lieut.-Col. C. W. Peck, V.C., D.S.O., recently nominated Conservative candidate for the Legislature in the Islands riding.

Colonel Peck said he was pleased to see such a good turnout. He was a man who did not like to say much about himself, but he could deal a hard blow and he could also take a hard blow. He thought it was quite time the province had a different government. He fully supported Mr. Bowser and his views.

As Mr. Bowser had been unavoidably detained, Mr. McDowell then spoke. He referred to Colonel Peck's qualities, and said the third party was of no use to anyone. It was simply taking votes from the strongest party. The Third Party in England had been Ireland, and that had done more harm than good in 1916.

Mr. Bowser, who arrived a short time later, addressed the gathering.

Refreshments were served and the evening ended with a dance.

DOZEN ATTENDED A PROVINCIAL PARTY MEETING SMITHERS

About a dozen rallied to the call to meeting of local supporters of the Provincial Party in the Smithers Hall on Wednesday, and while this was not considered sufficiently representative to complete a full organization the meeting proceeded to the election of a president and secretary to carry on, says the Interior News. These positions fell to R. L. Gale and D. R. Willemar respectively, and another effort will be made at a later date to complete the executive.

R. L. Gale was in the chair and after explaining the purposes of the meeting he called upon F. M. Dockrill, of Telkwa, who delivered an address that covered the reasons for the new party entering the field as well as detailing the aims and ambitions of the Provincial Party.

The urgent business of the meeting was the election of a delegate to attend the convention in Vancouver yesterday, this duty being voted to D. R. Willemar with J. S. Kelly as alternative. Business pressure arising, Mr. Willemar was unable to leave, and Mr. Kelly left on Sunday morning for the convention.

"The Remedy You Breathe"

PEPS are the finest protection you can have for Throat, Chest and Lungs this weather.

You simply divest a Peps of its silver-jacket then dissolve the tablet in your mouth. The powerful medicinal fumes given off are breathed through the throat and air-passages deep into the chest and lungs. In this way weak spots are soothed, strengthened and healed, coughs and colds quickly arrested.

Peps are powerfully germicidal and speedily effective. They exterminate the germs that bring bronchitis, throat troubles, influenza, pneumonia, etc. Free from all harmful drugs, splendid for all weak chested children.

OPTIMISTIC OVER EDMONTON'S FUTURE

EDMONTON, Dec. 7.—Candidates for mayoral office, James Ramsey and K. A. Blatchford, both sounded a note of optimism in speaking at one of the first of the series of official civic meetings which was held here, both declaring that they had greater confidence in the future of the city at the present time than ever before. Both speakers who were enthusiastically received by the audience, declared that with the great resources of coal, gas, timber, livestock and the possibility of oil, new industries would undoubtedly be attracted to the city, with the result that business would prosper according.

Fred Weaver of the United States consulate here sailed last night on the tanker J. A. Moffatt bound for Los Angeles on a holiday trip.
