POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE OF CITY MARRIED TODAY

Miss Nina Pringle Becomes Bride of Milton Gonzales at Pretty Early Morning Ceremony

One of the prettiest and most interesting weddings which has been solemnized in the city for some time took place this morning at 6.15 o'clock before an assembly which crowded the beautifully decorated Presbyterian Church Hall when Miss Nina Pringle, elder daughter of Mrs. T. E. Pringle, Fifth Avenue and Emmerson Place, was united in marriage to Milton Gonzales, son of Mrs. L. Gonzales, of Vancouver, Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant officiating.

Charming Bride

The bride was indeed charming in her costume of navy blue chiffon velvet with touches of gray squirrel and navy blue hat with silver trimmings. The bridal bouquet was of pink Ophelia roses and maidenhair ferns. The bridesmaid was Miss May Pringle, sister of the bride, who wore a beautiful gown of gray brocade Canton crepe with high collar and carried a bouquet of pink roses and violets. The bride's mother wore a lovely gown of navy blue Canton crepe with feathered hat, while the groom's mother had a smart costume of black charmeuse and radium silk with toque of black eady cloth. The bride was given away by her elder brother, Howard Pringle, and W. F. Roberge attended the groom. The church was tastefully decorated with spring flowers and ferns.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding march played by Miss Miss Blanche Curtin. During the signing of the register Mrs. R. A. Harlow sang very sweetly "O Promise Me."

Breakfast Served

Immediately after the ceremony was performed the bridal party and a goodly number of the large assembly repaired to the home of the bride's mother where a wedding breakfast was served. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Dr. Grant and responded to by the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Gonzales left on the G.T.P. steamer at 9 o'clock for Victoria enroute to Los Angeles where the honeymoon will be spent. Returning to the city in about three weeks, they will take up their residence on Fourth Avenue West.

Both bride and groom are very well known and very popular with a wide circle of friends. Having resided here for the past nine years, Mrs. Gonzales has always taken a leading part in the social life of the younger people. For the past three years she has been engaged as a stenographer in the Land Registry office. The groom, though not so long a resident of the city, is no less popular. He came here three years ago to become a member of the law firm of Williams, Manson & Gonzales and is regarded as one of the city's most promising young professional men.

WHO WILL BE U.S. PRESIDENT

Campaign Managers and State Makers Already Busy in The States

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Presidential politics is stirring more and more in both parties. Leaders are keenly alive to the fact that presidential candidates will be nominated in but little more than a year and they are looking the grounds over and laying plans accordingly.

Not only have such prominent democrats as William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, and William Jennings Bryan been in Washington, consulting friends this week, but there is plenty of activity among the Republicans.

Although it is commonly assumed that President Harding will be re-nominated by the Republicans, there are distinct signs developing that he will encounter strong opposition. Curiously enough, this opposition is by no means confined to the progressive Republicans. Some of the foremost of the regular or "Old Guard" Republicans are furnishing up their weapons and are setting ready openly to oppose the re-nomination of Mr. Harding. They are working hard it already but are doing it more or less under cover.

The Old Guard leaders who are fighting the re-nomination of the President are assailing the character of his leadership and insisting it is taking the party to ruin; that Mr. Harding, if re-nominated will be beaten at the polls.

New Candidates

The consequence is that the Old Guard leaders who oppose Mr. Harding welcome presidential primary laws in the different states on the theory the primaries will bring out one or more candidates stronger with the people than the President, Pas.

CANADIAN EXPANSION WILL BENEFIT STATES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—(By Canadian Press).—A report has just been issued by the Department of Commerce summarizing the conditions in the U.S. machinery industry and outlining the prospects for the coming year. Regarding Canada the report says:

"This country has long been our best market for industrial machinery, and this market should show good results in 1923. As Canada is prosperous and its exchange problems have disappeared. Plans have been prepared for important water-power plants, paper mills, grain elevators, highway construction, and a large number of other operations, and it would appear that these will require a great deal of American machinery."
