VAUDEVILLE GREAT SUCCESS AT OCEAN FALLS ON THURSDAY

Splendid Program Enjoyed by Large Audience Under Church Auspices

OCEAN FALLS, Oct. 29.—One of the most enjoyable performances in the history of the town was given here on Thursday evening, under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the St. Paul's church, in aid of a fund to defray expenses in connection with the installation of a heating system. The theatre was crowded and all available standing room was used to good advantage. Mrs. Irene Thomas opened the program with piano-forte selections of the latest Fox Trot hits, which were very well received by the large audience.

The "Little Tots" song and dance, by the children of the kindergarten, all of whom were under six years of age, reflected great credit on the capable teaching of Miss Strong.

A dance by three fairies, in the persons of the Misses M. Thompson, P. Christie, M. McSwan and little Mistress Stuart as cupid, directed by Mrs. E. McLane, was a most entertaining number.

First Aid
H. Lindsay, J. McAllister and T. Christie gave a very good exhibition on "First Aid" as Boy Scouts.

Directed by Mrs. E. McLane the Girl Guide's were very pleasing and clever in a series of formation drills and tableaux.

The "Grand Fantasia" from Madame Butterfly and "Cavatina" were artistically rendered by Mrs. L. H. Lindsay, piano, E. Fawcett, violin, and J. C. A. Long, cello.

A comic song, "I know I'm Beautiful" by Mrs. Bert Lilley, was one of the hits of the evening.

"The Chosen Princess," a playlet with Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Rattenbury, Miss T. Bennett, Miss A. A. Nutt, Miss M. Bennett and G. McFarland in the character parts, was well staged.

Mrs. S. Williams, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. F. Morrell sang a solo, "Whisper, and I shall hear."

"Come to the Fair," and "If Winter Comes," were two song numbers, by G. McFarland.

Tenor Solos
C. Caunt's solo interpretation of the well known songs, "The Trumpeter" and "Hymns of the old Church Choir," in a pleasing tenor voice, was in "top notch" turn.

And last, but by no means least, was the little playlet, comic, entitled "The Baby on the Shore," by Charles Abbot and Charles Gaunt and to the hearty and loud applause of the audience they gave the encore duet, "Let's all go bathing in the inlet." Allan Crawford ably supported at the piano in his well known style.

The ladies are to be congratulated on the splendid program and certainly deserved the success their united efforts met.

SPORT ACTIVITIES AT SMITHERS DURING THE COMING WINTER

Boxing, Basketball, Badminton and Skating to be Among Attractions at Bulkley Valley Centre

SMITHERS, Oct. 29.—Basketball and badminton are to be added to the activities of the Smithers Athletic Club this winter.

Orders have been placed for equipment and arrangements made for the use of the hall twice weekly.

A series of smokers will be held during the winter, the opening one to be held in November.

Devotees of fistiana are to have the services of F. Foster and Tom Allen as trainers for the boxing contests.

As soon as weather conditions permit work will be started on the rink, and it is the intention to stage a hockey series with neighbouring towns.

SPORT CHAT

The National Sporting Club of B.C. has been formed in Victoria through the promotion of Frank Slavin, mining engineer and expugilist of that city. The object of the organization is to cultivate boxing and other sports under conditions of the highest order. In addition to providing Victoria with periodical boxing contests, the club will hold a series of practical lessons supervised by Mr. Slavin and boys of even tender years will be enabled to learn how to take care of themselves while the older generation will be given tuition in both the art of boxing and physical development. Suitable quarters are being sought where all the conveniences of an up-to-date gymnasium will be featured in addition to a reading and office room. Dr. James F. Grant has been appointed physician to the club.

It's Just Perfect with fruits and cereals

100 Per Cent COWS MILK

BECAUSE of its creamy flavor and richness (double that of whole milk), Carnation Milk is, as users write, "just perfect with fruits and cereals."

Carnation is just 100 per cent cows' milk with part of its natural water removed by evaporation to reduce the bulk and give you doubly-rich milk in convenient-sized containers. Nothing is added, not even sugar. Thus it creams coffee, cocoa, fruits, vegetables, cereals, gravies, etc., perfectly.

Order a supply of Carnation with your groceries today. Prove for yourself that Carnation is your safest, most dependable, economical Pure Milk Service.

The Value of Purity

While we have never mentioned Pacific Milk as a valuable food for infants, we are constantly receiving letters telling of success mothers have had with it. In many of these letters are enclosed snapshots of the youngsters, which generally are a recommendation for the diet they have used—large recommendations, really.
