

SMITHERS

J. F. Duthie, of Seattle, is back in town, and is evincing keen interest in his several mining properties in the district.

The first Wednesday in November will inaugurate the weekly half holiday which the trades people have unanimously agreed to re-establish.

A movement is now on foot for the establishment of a private club here, and indications would point to its ultimate consummation.

The Smithers Board of Trade will shortly be in existence, as following a meeting held this week a membership drive is underway.

At the Bulkley Valley District Hospital on Wednesday a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. Watson.

It is reported that the huge timber wolf which has been making itself obnoxious by its depredations on farms in the neighborhood to the north of the town met its fate on the Sealy ranch on Friday, when a bullet from a high-power rifle laid it low.

Mrs. J. H. Rife returned from Vancouver on Thursday after a holiday of several months.

The new warehouse being erected for Boyer & Carr on Broadway is nearing completion.

The timber sale will be held at noon on the 1st day of November, 1923, in the office of the Forest Officer at Smithers.
