A worth-while Reputation

The head of one of this country's great manufacturing institutions says:

"The Man who builds and the man who buys are both beneficiaries of reputation. To the one it is a continuous spur and incentive--to the other, the strongest of all guarantees that what he buys is worthy."

Patronize the manufacturer or merchant who has a reputation for honesty and fair dealing. Such motives must actuate the consistent advertiser. The man who invests real money in building a reputation for himself and his merchandise cannot afford to risk any of it by taking unfair advantage of his customers. He must retain the good-will of the buying public. Without this, his business cannot succeed

Every time he advertises he puts his reputation in your hands. His products or the wares he has for sale must make good. His service must be as advertised.

That is why it pays to read advertisements, to deal with advertisers and to buy advertised goods.

Dissolve in boiling water

Use enough to get a big lasting suds

Big lasting suds—one secret of Rinso's amazing power to dissolve dirt. If you don't get lasting suds, you have not used enough Rinso.

Soak an hour or more Overnight if you wish—(Colored clothes only half an hour)

After soaking, only the most soiled clothes need a light rubbing with dry Rinso.

Your clothes don't need boiling if you use Rinso. But if you like to boil your white cottons, use enough Rinso solution to get the suds you like.

NOTE: In hard water it takes from 3/4 to 1 package of Rinso to a tub to make good suds. In very hard water you will need from 1 1/2 to 2 packages to a tub to get the big lasting suds that loosen all the dirt.
