TORONTO, Dec. 22 .- Three years was the time definitely fixed last night by Sir Henry Thornton as the period at the end; of which the Canadian taxpayers might expect to find themselves freed of the burden of deficits on the Canadian National Railways. In an address before the annual convention of the Commercial Travellers' Association, Sir Henry announced that the net profits of the system up to December 1 had reached $15,000,000. He predicted that up to the end of the year they Intermediate Methodist Sunday would be $18,000,000 and declared that he would be disap-school held in the church audi-

Recitations were very creditably given by Billy McLean, Miss Olive Hicks, Geo. McLean, Bobbie Irvine and Neil McLean. One of the outstanding features the musical entertainment was a pianoforte solo executed by little Miss Ruby Lee. Miss Lee, who is five years old, has been studying the piano under the tutorship of Miss Way for the past three months and her musical ability was very evident in the confident manner in which she executed her solo. Songs were rendered by Miss Linea Hanson and the West Ham U. 3, Notts Forest 2. Trail Rangers. A vocal duet in character costume of the poppy and the violet by the Misses Enid and Claire Williams was splendidly performed. The violin solo by Marno Sugurdson and Victor Thomas under the direction of Manchester United 5, Port Vale 0 Professor Pryce was excellent. A violin solo by Billy Murray, accompanied by Miss Grant at the piano, made a great hit. Barrie's Boy Minstrel Troup, led by Earl COUNCIL OF BOARD Barrie, kept the audience in good humor, their turn being much appreciated.
