EXCELSIOR CLUB HAS SOCIAL EVENING AT CHURCH LAST NIGHT

A social meeting of the Excelsior Club was held in the lecture room of the Baptist Church last night, when the "Helping Hands" Society was entertained by the boys, some 40 young people being present.

A very attractive program was provided. Violin solos were rendered by William Murray, Edward Walters and Bennie Windle—all were creditably rendered and most enthusiastically received, encores being called for in each case. W. Vaughan-Davis accompanied in his usual masterly manner. Readings also were given by Arthur Phillips, president of the club, and Bennie Windle.

During the evening numerous games were entered into with youthful zest, after which refreshments were partaken of, and a most enjoyable evening brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

Pastor J. J. Smithson has charge of the Excelsior Club, which is in a flourishing condition.
