NEW OFFICERS - SWIMMING CLUB

Enthusiastic Meeting Last Night - Plans Formulated for Season

An enthusiastic meeting of the Prince Rupert Swimming Club was held in the city police court last night with Principal J. C. Brady in the chair, pro tem, and C. Westaway, acting secretary, pro tem.

The following officers were elected: Honorary President - Hon. T. D. Pattullo. Honorary Vice-President - Hon. A. M. Manson. President - Jack Boddie. Vice-President - J. Lorne MacLaren.

Secretary - Treasurer - Cyril Westaway. Executive - President and Vice-President, A. T. Parkin, E. H. Shockley, Geo. Frizzell, H. J. Kelly and M. Lemon.

The meeting decided to ask the city council to make the same appropriation of money to the club as in 1921 $300. Such amount will go towards the repairing of the floats at the Salt Lakes and filling the edge of the lake with sand or some suitable material in order to make a shallow bathing and paddling pool for children.

It was also decided that the club should seek co-operation of all lodges and organizations in the city in selling membership tickets instead of donating sums of money as in previous years. A drive is to be made throughout the city with the idea of inducing every man, woman and child, to become a member of the club.

Those present at the meeting were E. C. Gibbons, Joe Scott, J. Lorne MacLaren, J. C. Brady, H. J. Kelly, M. Lemon, C. Westaway, J. Boddie, A. Palmer, John Carr, H. White, Sid Thompson and Malcolm Lamb.

King George's 30-year old racing yacht, Britannia, has just come off the ways for another season of racing. She has been re-coppered, overhauled and equipped with new running gear. The King has decided to race the old craft this year chiefly for the purpose of reviving the sport and for the benefit of spectators at regattas. English yachtsmen say the days of racing big expensive vessels have passed forever. It has become such a costly sport that few can afford to undertake it.

Hunting clubs, game protective associations and nature lovers, alarmed by the rapid disappearance of feathered game in United States, are conducting an agitation to limit the use of the automatic shotgun if not abolish its use entirely. Sportmen who already have automatic shotguns are being urged to arrange the magazines of their weapons so as to limit their use to two shells. The fact that an automatic contains five shells which can be fired with great rapidity, they say, is resulting in countless crippled birds being unrecovered by the hunters.

A rigid training rule laid down by Tris Speaker, player-manager of the Cleveland Indians, prohibits players from smoking cigarettes or drinking anything stronger than one-half of one per cent. The veteran star-manager believes that physical fitness offsets minor playing defects and he expects his men to be the stumbling block of all 1923 pennant aspirants.
