TECHNICALITY DID NOT WORK

Judge Gregory Refuses to Accept Stuart Henderson's Plea for Northern Bootleggers

VICTORIA, Aug. 6.—There was no merit in the habeas corpus applications of H. J. Murphy, Stewart; Lee Lun, Anyox; Elsie McCoy, Frank Garbham and Geo. Graham, Alice Arm, committed to Okalla for bootlegging...

Stuart Henderson appeared for all the convicted persons, the argument in behalf of one of them, H. J. Murphy, being taken as applying to all. They were convicted by the Prince Rupert magistrate for selling liquor in Anyox and other places...

The applications were resisted in behalf of the Crown by W. D. Carter, K.C., Deputy Attorney-General. Mr. Henderson said that the Government Liquor Act did not specify the place where persons convicted under its provisions should be imprisoned...

Appeal Resisted. Mr. Carter contended that the original warrant was good, and in any case the amended warrant had cured the defect if there was one. The convicted man was in the place to which he had been sent. The court knew it. Law and justice had been satisfied.

Mr. Justice Gregory plainly indicated his lack of sympathy with the invocation of technicalities to secure the release of the convicted men. There was no merit in their case, said the court; and while that was no excuse for not complying with the law as to their commitment to prison, it was bound to have its effect with the judge who was asked to release them on such grounds as had been contended for.

The applications were dismissed. Mrs. H. Forrest and children have left town to reside in Prince Rupert where Mr. Forrest is employed on the Canadian National
