Tentative Agreement Reached Regarding Building of Road Prince Rupert to Skeena River

The question of the Grand Trunk Pacific Development Co. Ltd. bearing a part of the cost of a road leading out of this city to the Skeena River by turning over a portion of its land instead of paying cash and also the matter of subdividing its acreage in the vicinity of the city and allocating the proper share to the provincial government were fully gone into at a conference between Hon. T. D. Pattullo, member for Prince Rupert and minister of lands, and officials of the company in Victoria last week and a satisfactory agreement between both parties, subject to the ratification of the legislature. was reached stated G. P. Tinker, CANADA GIVES Development Co. who returned to the city Salurday evening after altending the conference. The acreage in question includes the holdings of the company behind the townsite, across the harbor and at other points nearby. The property including the Salt Lake may also be included. Tinker, while declining to give out any definite results of the conference, stated his opinion that the agreement reached would be of considerable benefit to the city. The conference was held at crowds met Lloyd George on his the request of Mr. Pattullo to arrival from New York Saturday
