Annual Christmas Entertainment At Salvation Army Citadel

The annual Christmas Tree entertainment of the Salvation Army Sunday School took place last evening in the Citadel which was crowded for the occasion. The children and young people presented an excellent program after which Santa Claus paid a visit to the gathering and distributed toys, candy and nuts to each child. General arrangements for the entertainment were in charge of Capt. Catherine Loewen and Lieut. Agnes Coxson while Capt. R. M. Steele, local commandant, presided.

The program was as follows: Opening Action Song, Sunday

School. Recitation, "Out of Luck at Christmas," Ralph Anderson. Club Swinging, Edward Harmon.

Stocking Drill, ten girls. Recitation, "Wise Willie," Herbie

Recitation, Mavis Thain and Buddy Pierce. Christmas Tableaux.

Dialogue, "One Whole Dollar," Rosie Smith and Olga Zeliski. Tableau, "Rock of Ages."

Recitation, "The Crippled Doll," Ina Robertson. Song, "Be Careful," Tiny Tots. Dialogue, "Christmas Secrets." Recitation, Margaret Penny.

Dialogue, "That Awful Temper,

Young People. Recitation, Mavis Thain. Closing Song, "Good Night," six
